HUTCHISON (AND OTHERS) AMENDMENT NO. 2994

Mrs. HUTCHISON (for herself, Mr. MCCAIN, Mr. LIEBERMAN, Mr. STEVENS, and Mr. LEVIN) submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by them to the bill S. 1357, supra, as follows:

(a) The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) Human rights violations and atrocities continue unabated in the Former Yugoslavia.

(2) The Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights recently reported that starting in mid-September and intensifying between October 6 and October 12, 1995 many thousands of Bosnian Muslims and Croats in Northwest Bosnia were systematically forced from their homes by paramilitary units, local police and in some instances, Bosnian Serb Army officials and soldiers.

(3) Despite the October 12, 1995 cease-fire which went into effect by agreement of the warring parties in the former Yugoslavia, Bosnian Serbs continue to conduct a brutal campaign to expel non-Serb civilians who remain in Northwest Bosnia, and are subjecting non-Serbs to untold horror—murder, rape, robbery and other violence.

(4) Horrible examples of "ethnic cleansing" persist in Northwest Bosnia. Some six thousand refugees recently reached Zenica and reported that nearly two thousand family members from this group are still unaccounted for.

(5) The U.N. spokesman in Zagreb reported that many refugees have been given only a few minutes to leave their homes and that "girls as young as 17 are reported to have been taken into wooded areas and raped." Elderly, sick and very young refugees have been driven to remote areas and forced to walk long distances on unsafe roads and cross rivers without bridges.

(6) The War Crime Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia has collected volumes of evidence of atrocities, including the establishment of death camps, mass executions and systematic campaigns of rape and terror. This War Crimes Tribunal has already issued 43 indictments on the basis of this evidence.

(7) The Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights has described the eye witness accounts as "prima facia evidence of war crimes which, if confirmed, could very well lead to further indictments by the War Crimes Tribunal."

(8) The U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees estimates that more than 22,000 Muslims and Croats have been forced from their homes since mid-September in Bosnian Serb controlled areas.

(9) In opening the Dodd Center Symposium on the topic of "50 Years After Nuremburg" on October 16, 1995, President Clinton cited the "excellent progress" of the War Crimes Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and said, "Those accused of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide must be brought to justice. They must be tried and, if found guilty, they must be held accountable."

(10) President Clinton also observed on October 16, 1995, "some people are concerned that pursuing peace in Bosnia and prosecuting war criminals are incompatible goals. But I believe they are wrong. There must be peace for justice to prevail, but there must be justice when peace prevails.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Senate condemns the systematic human rights abuses against the people of Bosnia and Herzogovenia.

(2) with peace talks scheduled to begin in the United States on October 31, 1995, and with the President clearly indicating his willingness to send American forces into the heart of this conflict, these new reports of Serbian atrocities are of grave concern to all Americans.

(3) the Bosnian Serb leadership should immediately halt these atrocities, fully account for the missing, and allow those who have been separated to return to their families.

(4) the International Red Cross, United Nations agencies and human rights organizations should be granted full and complete access to all locations throughout Bosnia and Herzogovenia.

(5) the Bosnian Serb leadership should fully cooperate to facilitate the complete investigation of the above allegations so that those responsible may be held accountable under international treaties, conventions, obligations and law.

(6) the United States should continue to support the work of the War Crime Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia.

(7) the United States should ensure that any negotiated peace agreements in former Yugoslavia, particularly with respect to Bosnia, require all states of the former Yugoslavia to cooperate fully with the War Crimes Tribunal and apprehend and turn over for trial any indicted persons found in their territories.

(8) ethnic cleansing" by any faction, group, leader, or government is unjustified, immoral and illegal and all perpetrators of war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide and other human rights violations in former Yugoslavia must be held accountable.

"(2) with respect to which applicable State law (as in effect on September 13, 1995 and without regard to any modification after such date) provides, or has been construed to provide by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a decision issued on or before September 13, 1995, that only punitive damages may be awarded in such an action.

Subtitle K—Home and Community-Based Services for Individuals with Disabilities

SEC. 7500. PURPOSES; SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

(a) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this subtitle are—

(1) to provide States with a capped source of funding to establish a system of consumer-oriented, consumer-directed home and community-based long-term care services for individuals with disabilities of any age;

(2) to ensure that all individuals with severe disabilities have access to such services while protecting taxpayers and maximizing program benefits by including significant cost-sharing provisions that require individuals with higher incomes to pay a greater share of the cost of their care;

(3) to build on the experience of Wisconsin's home and community-based long-term care program, the Community Options Program (COP), which has been a national model of reform, and the keystone of Wisconsin's long-term care reforms that have saved Wisconsin taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars; and

(4) to continue the recent bipartisan efforts to establish this kind of long-term care reform, including the excellent long-term care proposal included in President Clinton's health care reform bill last year, as well as the provisions establishing home and community-based long-term care benefits in the versions of the President's bill that were reported out of the Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources and the Senate Committee on Finance last session, provisions which had, in both cases, strong bipartisan support.

(b) SHORT TITLE.—This subtitle may be cited as the "Long-Term Care Reform and Deficit Reduction Act of 1995".

(c) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents of this subtitle is as follows:

SEC. 7501. STATE PROGRAMS FOR HOME AND COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Each State that has a plan for home and community-based services for individuals with disabilities submitted to and approved by the Secretary under section 7502(b) may receive payment in accordance with section 7508.

(b) ENTITLEMENT TO SERVICES.—Nothing in this subtitle shall be construed to create a right to services for individuals or a requirement that a State with an approved plan expend the entire amount of funds to which it is entitled under this subtitle.

(c) DESIGNATION OF AGENCY.—Not later than 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall designate an agency responsible for program administration under this subtitle.

SEC. 7502. STATE PLANS.

(a) PLAN REQUIREMENTS.—In order to be approved under subsection (b), a State plan for home and community-based services for individuals with disabilities must meet the following requirements:

(1) STATE MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—A State plan under this subtitle shall provide that the State will, during any fiscal year that the State is furnishing services under this subtitle, make expenditures of State funds in an amount equal to the State maintenance of effort amount for the year determined under subparagraph (B) for furnishing the services described in subparagraph (C) under the State plan under this subtitle or the State plan under title XXI of the Social Security Act.

(B) STATE MAINTENANCE OF EFFORT AMOUNT.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The maintenance of effort amount for a State for a fiscal year is an amount equal to—

(I) for fiscal year 1997, the base amount for the State (as determined under clause (ii)) updated through the midpoint of fiscal year 1997 by the estimated percentage change in the index described in clause (iii) during the period beginning on October 1, 1995, and ending at that midpoint; and

(II) for succeeding fiscal years, an amount equal to the amount determined under this clause for the previous fiscal year updated through the midpoint of the year by the estimated percentage change in the index described in clause (iii) during the 12-month period ending at that midpoint, with appropriate adjustments to reflect previous underestimations or overestimations under this clause in the projected percentage change in such index.

(ii) STATE BASE AMOUNT.—The base amount for a State is an amount equal to the total expenditures from State funds made under the State plan under title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396 et seq.) during fiscal year 1995 with respect to medical assistance consisting of the services described in subparagraph (C).

(iii) INDEX DESCRIBED.—For purposes of clause (i), the Secretary shall develop an index that reflects the projected increases in spending for services under subparagraph (C), adjusted for differences among the States.

(C) MEDICAID SERVICES DESCRIBED.—The services described in this subparagraph are the following:

(i) Personal care services (as described in section 1905(a)(24) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396(a)(24)), as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of this Act).

(ii) Home or community-based services furnished under a waiver granted under subsection (c), (d), or (e) of section 1915 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1396n), as so in effect.

(iii) Home and community care furnished to functionally disabled elderly individuals under section 1929 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1396t), as so in effect.

(iv) Community supported living arrangements services under section 1930 of such Act (42 U.S.C. 1396u), as so in effect.

(v) Services furnished in a hospital, nursing facility, intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded, or other institutional setting specified by the Secretary.

(2) ELIGIBILITY.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Within the amounts provided by the State and under section 7508 for such plan, the plan shall provide that services under the plan will be available to individuals with disabilities (as defined in section 7503(a)) in the State.

(B) INITIAL SCREENING.—The plan shall provide a process for the initial screening of an individual who appears to have some reasonable likelihood of being an individual with disabilities. Any such process shall require the provision of assistance to individuals who wish to apply but whose disability limits their ability to apply. The initial screening and the determination of disability (as defined under section 7503(b)) shall be conducted by a public agency.

(C) RESTRICTIONS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The plan may not limit the eligibility of individuals with disabilities based on—

(I) income;

(II) age;

(III) residential setting (other than with respect to an institutional setting, in accordance with clause (ii)); or

(IV) other grounds specified by the Secretary;

except that through fiscal year 2005, the Secretary may permit a State to limit eligibility based on level of disability or geography (if the State ensures a balance between urban and rural areas).

(ii) INSTITUTIONAL SETTING.—The plan may limit the eligibility of individuals with disabilities based on the definition of the term "institutional setting", as determined by the State.

(D) CONTINUATION OF SERVICES.—The plan must provide assurances that, in the case of an individual receiving medical assistance for home and community-based services under the State medicaid plan under title XXI of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396 et seq.) as of the date a State's plan is approved under this subtitle, the State will continue to make available (either under this plan, under the State medicaid plan, or otherwise) to such individual an appropriate level of assistance for home and community-based services, taking into account the level of assistance provided as of such date and the individual's need for home and community-based services.

(3) SERVICES.—

(A) NEEDS ASSESSMENT.—Not later than the end of the second year of implementation, the plan or its amendments shall include the results of a statewide assessment of the needs of individuals with disabilities in a format required by the Secretary. The needs assessment shall include demographic data concerning the number of individuals within each category of disability described in this subtitle, and the services available to meet the needs of such individuals.

(B) SPECIFICATION.—Consistent with section 7504, the plan shall specify—

(i) the services made available under the plan;

(ii) the extent and manner in which such services are allocated and made available to individuals with disabilities; and

(iii) the manner in which services under the plan are coordinated with each other and with health and long-term care services available outside the plan for individuals with disabilities.

(C) TAKING INTO ACCOUNT INFORMAL CARE.—A State plan may take into account, in determining the amount and array of services made available to covered individuals with disabilities, the availability of informal care. (B) CAP ON STATE SAVINGS ALLOTMENT.—In no case shall the allotment made under this paragraph to any State for a fiscal year exceed the product of—

(i) the Federal medical assistance percentage for such State (as defined under section 2122(c) of the Social Security Act); multiplied by

(II) for succeeding fiscal years, an amount equal to the amount determined under this clause for the previous fiscal year updated through the midpoint of the year by the estimated percentage change in such index during the 12-month period ending at that midpoint, with appropriate adjustments to reflect previous underestimations or overestimations under this clause in the projected percentage change in such index.

(C) BASE MEDICAL ASSISTANCE AMOUNT.—The base medical assistance amount for a State is an amount equal to the total expenditures from Federal and State funds made under the State plan under title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396 et seq.) during fiscal year 1995 with respect to medical assistance consisting of the services described in section 7502(a)(1)(C).

(a) The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) Human rights violations and atrocities continue unabated in the Former Yugoslavia.

(2) The Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights recently reported that starting in mid-September and intensifying between October 6 and October 12, 1995 many thousands of Bosnian Muslims and Croats in Northwest Bosnia were systematically forced from their homes by paramilitary units, local police and in some instances, Bosnian Serb Army officials and soliders.

(3) Despite the October 12, 1995 cease-fire which went into effect by agreement of the warring parties in the former Yugoslavia, Bosnian Serbs continue to conduct a brutal campaign to expel non-Serb civilians who remain in Northwest Bosnia, and are subjecting non-Serbs to untold horror—murder, rape, robbery and other violence.

(4) Horrible examples of "ethnic cleansing" persist in Northwest Bosnia. Some six thousand refugees recently reached Zenica and reported that nearly two thousand family members from this group are still unaccounted for.

(5) The U.N. spokesman in Zagreb reported that many refugees have been given only a few minutes to leave their homes and that "girls as young as 17 are reported to have been taken into wooded areas and raped." Elderly, sick and very young refugees have been driven to remote areas and forced to walk long distances on unsafe roads and cross rivers without bridges.

(6) The War Crimes Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia has collected volumes of evidence of atrocities, including the establishment of death camps, mass executions and systematic campaigns of rape and terror. This War Crimes Tribunal has already issued 43 indictments on the basis of this evidence.

(7) The Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights has described the eye witness accounts as "prima facia evidence of war crimes which, if confirmed, could very well lead to further indictments by the War Crimes Tribunal."

(8) The U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees estimates that more than 22,000 Muslims and Croats have been forced from their homes since mid-September in Bosnian Serb controlled areas.

"(i) NO DEPENDENT CHILD.—Subject to clause (ii) and subparagraph (C), extension of assistance during the 12-month period described in paragraph (1) to a family shall terminate (during such period) at the close of the first month in which the family ceases to include a child, whether or not the child is a needy child under part A of title IV.

"(ii) CONTINUTAION IN CERTAIN CASES UNTIL REDETERMINATION.—With respect to a child who would cease to receive medical assistance because of clause (i) but who may be eligible for assistance under the State plan because the child is described in section 2111(a)(2), the State may not discontinue such assistance under such clause until the State has determined that the child is not eligible for assistance under the plan.

"(C) NOTICE BEFORE MODIFICATION OR TERMINATION.—No modification or termination of assistance shall become effective under this paragraph until the State has provided the family with a 60-day notice of the grounds for the modification or termination, which notice shall include (in the case of termination) a description of how the family may reestablish eligibility for medical assistance under the State plan. No such termination shall be effective earlier than 10 days after the date of mailing of such notice.

"(4) SCOPE OF COVERAGE.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D), during the 12-month extension period under this subsection, the amount, duration, and scope of medical assistance made available with respect to a family shall be the same as if the family were still receiving assistance under the plan approved under part A of title IV.

"(B) ELIMINATION OF MOST NON-ACUTE CARE BENEFITS.—At a State's option and notwithstanding any other provision of this title, a State may choose not to provide medical assistance under this subsection with respect to any (or all) non-acute care benefits.

"(C) STATE MEDICAID 'WRAP-AROUND' OPTION.—A State, at its option, may pay a family's expenses for premiums, deductibles, coinsurance, and similar costs for health insurance or other health coverage offered by an employer of the parent or caretaker relative or by an employer of the absent parent of a needy child. In the case of such coverage offered by an employer of the parent or caretaker relative—

"(i) the State may require the parent or caretaker relative, as a condition of extension of coverage under this subsection for the parent or caretaker and the parent's or caretaker's family, to make application for such employer coverage, but only if—

"(I) the parent caretaker relative is not required to make financial contributions for such coverage (whether through payroll deduction, payment of deductibles, coinsurance, or similar costs, or otherwise), and

"(II) the State provides, directly or otherwise, for payment of any of the premium amount, deductible, coinsurance, or similar expense that the employee is otherwise required to pay; and

"(ii) the State shall treat the coverage under such an employer plan as a third party liability (under section 2135).

Payments for premiums, deductibles, coinsurance, and similar expenses under this subparagraph shall be considered, for purposes of section 2122(a), to be payments for medical assistance.

"(D) ALTERNATIVE ASSISTANCE.—At a State's option, the State may offer families a choice of health care coverage under one or more of the following, instead of the medical assistance otherwise made available under this subsection:

"(i) ENROLLMENT IN FAMILY OPTION OF EMPLOYER PLAN.—Enrollment of the parent or caretaker relative and needy children in a family option of the group health plan offered to the parent or caretaker relative.

"(ii) ENROLLMENT IN FAMILY OPTION OF STATE EMPLOYEE PLAN.—Enrollment of the parent or caretaker relative and needy children in a family option within the options of the group health plan or plans offered by the State to State employees.

"(iii) ENROLLMENT IN STATE UNINSURED PLAN.—Enrollment of the parent or caretaker relative and needy children in a basic State health plan offered by the State to individuals in the State (or areas of the State) otherwise unable to obtain health insurance coverage.

"(iv) ENROLLMENT IN HMO, ETC.—Enrollment of the parent or caretaker relative and needy children in a capitated health care organization (as defined in section 2114(c)(1)) less than 50 percent of the membership (enrolled on a prepaid basis) of which consists of individuals who are eligible to receive benefits under this title (other than because of the option offered under this clause). The option of enrollment under this clause is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any enrollment option that the State might offer under subparagraph (A)(i) with respect to receiving services through a capitated health care organization in accordance with section 2114.

If a State elects to offer an option to enroll a family under this subparagraph, the State shall pay any premiums and other costs for such enrollment imposed on the family and may pay deductibles and coinsurance imposed on the family. A State's payment of premiums for the enrollment of families under this subparagraph (not including any premiums otherwise payable by an employer and less the amount of premiums collected from such families under paragraph (5)) and payment of any deductibles and coinsurance shall be considered, for purposes of section 2122(a), to be payments for medical assistance.

"(5) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—Each State shall require (as a condition for extended assistance under this subsection) that a family receiving such extended assistance report to the State such eligibility verification as the State deems necessary. A State may permit such extended assistance under this subsection notwithstanding a failure to report under this paragraph if the family has established, to the satisfaction of the State, good cause for the failure to report on a timely basis.

"(b) APPLICABILITY IN STATES AND TERRITORIES.—

"(1) STATES OPERATING UNDER DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS.—In the case of any State which is providing medical assistance to its residents under a waiver granted under section 1115(a), the Secretary shall require the State to meet the requirements of this section in the same manner as the State would be required to meet such requirement if the State had in effect a plan approved under this title.

"(2) INAPPLICABILITY IN COMMONWEALTHS AND TERRITORIES.—The provisions of this section shall only apply to the 50 States and the District of Columbia.

"(c) GENERAL DISQUALIFICATION FOR FRAUD.—

"(1) INELIGIBILITY FOR ASSISTANCE.—This section shall not apply to an individual who is a member of a family which has received assistance under part A of title IV if the State makes a finding that, at any time during the last 6 months in which the family was receiving such assistance before otherwise being provided extended eligibility under this section, the individual was ineligible for such assistance because of fraud.

"(2) GENERAL DISQUALIFICATIONS.—For additional provisions relating to fraud and program abuse, see sections 1128, 1128A, and 1128B.

"(d) CARETAKER RELATIVE DEFINED.—In this section, the term 'caretaker relative' has the meaning of such term as used in part A of title IV.

At the end of title VII add the following new subtitle:

Subtitle K—Home and Community-Based Services for Individuals With Disabilities

SEC. 7500. PURPOSES; SHORT TITLE; TABLE OF CONTENTS.

(a) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this subtitle are—

(1) to provide States with a capped source of funding to establish a system of consumer-oriented, consumer-directed home and community-based long-term care services for individuals with disabilities of any age;

(2) to ensure that all individuals with severe disabilities have access to such services while protecting taxpayers and maximizing program benefits by including significant cost-sharing provisions that require individuals with higher incomes to pay a greater share of the cost of their care;

(3) to build on the experience of Wisconsin's home and community-based long-term care program, the Community Options Program (COP), which has been a national model of reform, and the keystone of Wisconsin's long-term care reforms that have saved Wisconsin taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars; and

(4) to continue the recent bipartisan efforts to establish this kind of long-term care reform, including the excellent long-term care proposal included in President Clinton's health care reform bill last year, as well as the provisions establishing home and community-based long-term care benefits in the versions of the President's bill that were reported out of the Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources and the Senate Community on Finance last session, provisions which had, in both cases, strong bipartisan support.

(b) SHORT TITLE.—This subtitle may be cited as the "Long-Term Care Reform and Deficit Reduction Act of 1995".

(c) TABLE OF CONTENTS.—The table of contents of this subtitle is as follows:

SEC. 7501. STATE PROGRAMS FOR HOME AND COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICES FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES.

(b) ENTITLEMENT TO SERVICES.—NOTHING IN THIS SUBTITLE SHALL BE CONSTRUED TO CREATE A RIGHT TO SERVICES FOR INDIVIDUALS OR A REQUIREMENT THAT A STATE WITH AN APPROVED PLAN EXPEND THE ENTIRE AMOUNT OF FUNDS TO WHICH IT IS ENTITLED UNDER THIS SUBTITLE.

(c) DESIGNATION OF AGENCY.—Not later than 6 months after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall designate an agency responsible for program administration under this subtitle.

(II) for succeeding fiscal years, an amount equal to the amount determined under this clause for the previous fiscal year updated through the midpoint of the year by the estimated percentage change in the index described in clause (iii) during the 12-month period ending at that midpoint, with appropriate adjustments to reflect previous underestimations or overestimations under this clause in the projected percentage change in such index.

(ii) STATE BASE AMOUNT.—The base amount for a State is an amount equal to the total expenditures from State funds made under the State plan under title XIX of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396 et seq.) during fiscal year 1995 with respect to medical assistance consisting of the services described in subparagraph (C).

(iii) INDEX DESCRIBED.—For purposes of clause (i), the Secretary shall develop an index that reflects the projected increases in spending for services under subparagraph (C), adjusted for differences among the States.

(C) MEDICAID SERVICES DESCRIBED.—The services described in this subparagraph are the following:

(i) Personal care services (as described in section 1905(a)(24) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396d(a)(24)), as in effect on the day before the date of the enactment of this Act).

Any such process shall require the provision of assistance to individuals who wish to apply but whose disability limits their ability to apply. The initial screening and the determination of disability (as defined under section 7503(b)(1)) shall be conducted by a public agency.

(C) RESTRICTIONS.—

(i) IN GENERAL.—The plan may not limit the eligibility of individuals with disabilities based on—

(IV) other grounds specified by the Secretary;

except that through fiscal year 2005, the Secretary may permit a State to limit eligibility based on level of disability or geography (if the State ensures a balance between urban and rural areas).

(ii) INSTITUTIONAL SETTING.—The plan may limit the eligibility of individuals with disabilities based on the definition of the term "institutional setting", as determined by the State.

(D) CONTINUATION OF SERVICES.—The plan must provide assurances that, in the case of an individual receiving medical assistance for home and community-based services under the State Medicaid plan under title XXI of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396 et seq.) as of the date a State's plan is approved under this subtitle, the State will continue to make available (either under this plan, under the State Medicaid plan, or otherwise) to such individual an appropriate level of assistance for home and community-based services, taking into account the level of assistance provided as of such date and the individual's need for home and community-based services.

(A) NEEDS ASSESSMENT.—Not later than the end of the second year of implementation, the plan or its amendments shall include the results of a statewide assessment of the needs of individuals with disabilities in a format required by the Secretary. (II) the proportion of the population of the State that represents individuals who are low-income individuals.

(E) LIMITATION ON LICENSURE OR CERTIFICATION.—The State may not subject consumer-directed providers of personal assistance services to licensure, certification, or other requirements that the Secretary finds not to be necessary for the health and safety of individuals with disabilities.

(F) CONSUMER CHOICE.—To the extent feasible, the State shall follow the choice of an individual with disabilities (or that individual's designated representative who may be a family member) regarding which covered services to receive and the providers who will provide such services.

(C) who is expected to meet the requirements of subparagraphs (A) and (B) over a period of at least 90 days.

Not later than 2 years after the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall make recommendations regarding the most appropriate duration of disability under this paragraph.

(b) DETERMINATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—In formulating eligibility criteria under subsection (a), the Secretary shall establish criteria for assessing the functional level of disability among all categories of individuals with disabilities that are comparable in severity, regardless of the age or the nature of the disabling condition of the individual. The determination of whether an individual is an individual with disabilities shall be made by a public or nonprofit agency that is specified under the State plan and that is not a provider of home and community-based services under this subtitle and by using a uniform protocol consisting of an initial screening and a determination of disability specified by the Secretary. A State may not impose cost sharing with respect to a determination of disability. The comprehensive assessment shall be made by a public or nonprofit agency that is specified under the State plan and that is not a provider of home and community-based services under this subtitle.

(ii) EXCEPTION.—The State may elect to waive the provisions of clause (i) if—

(I) with respect to any area of the State, the State has determined that there is an insufficient pool of entities willing to perform comprehensive assessments in such area due to a low population of individuals eligible for home and community-based services under this subtitle residing in the area; and

(II) the State plan specifies procedures that the State will implement in order to avoid conflicts of interest.

(ii) REQUIREMENTS WITH RESPECT TO PLAN OF CARE.—A plan of care under this subparagraph shall—

(IV) be reviewed and updated every 6 months (or more frequently if there is a change in the individual's condition).

The State shall make reasonable efforts to identify and arrange for services described in subclause (II). Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring a State (under the State plan or otherwise) to provide all the services specified in such a plan.

(B) EXCEPTION.—A person who provides home and community-based services under this subtitle may provide care management services if—

(i) the State determines that there is an insufficient pool of entities willing to provide such services in an area due to a low population of individuals eligible for home and community-based services under this subtitle residing in such area; and

(ii) the State plan specifies procedures that the State will implement in order to avoid conflicts of interest.

(d) MANDATORY COVERAGE OF PERSONAL ASSISTANCE SERVICES.—The State plan shall include, in the array of services made available to each category of individuals with disabilities, both agency-administered and consumer-directed personal assistance services (as defined in subsection (h)).

(e) ADDITIONAL SERVICES.—

"SEC. 1889. (a) ESTABLISHMENT OF SYSTEM.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, the Secretary shall establish a prospective payment system under which fixed payments for episodes of care shall be made, instead of payments determined under section 1861(v), section 1888, or section 1888A, to skilled nursing facilities for all extended care services furnished during the benefit period established under section 1812(a)(2). Such payments shall constitute payment for capital costs and all routine and non-routine service costs covered under this title that are furnished to individuals who are inpatients of skilled nursing facilities during such benefit period, except for physicians' services. The payment amounts shall vary depending on case-mix, patient acuity, and such other factors as the Secretary determines are appropriate. The prospective payment system shall apply for cost reporting periods (or portions of cost reporting periods) beginning on or after October 1, 1997.

"(b) 90 PERCENT OF LEVELS OTHERWISE IN EFFECT.—The Secretary shall establish the prospective payment amounts under subsection (a) at levels such that, in the Secretary's estimation, the amount of total payments under this title shall not exceed 90 percent of the amount of payments that would have been made under this title for all routine and non-routine services and capital expenditures if this section had not been enacted.

"(c) ADJUSTMENT IN RATES TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT BENEFICIARY COST-SHARING.—The Secretary shall reduce the prospective payment rates established under this section to take into account the beneficiary coinsurance amount required under section 1813(a)(3).".

The Secretary may adjust such payments if the Secretary determines (on the basis of such estimated information as the Secretary considers appropriate) that payments to the facility under this paragraph for a cost reporting period would substantially exceed the cost reporting period amount determined under subsection (c)(2).

"(3) RESPONSIBILITY OF SKILLED NURSING FACILITY TO MANAGE BILLINGS.—

"(A) CLARIFICATION RELATING TO PART A BILLING.—In the case of a covered non-routine service furnished to an individual who (at the time the service is furnished) is a resident of a skilled nursing facility who is entitled to coverage under section 1812(a)(2) for such service, the skilled nursing facility shall submit a claim for payment under this title for such service under part A (without regard to whether or not the item or service was furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(B) PART B BILLING.—In the case of a covered non-routine service furnished to an individual who (at the time the service is furnished) is a resident of a skilled nursing facility who is not entitled to coverage under section 1812(a)(2) for such service but is entitled to coverage under part B for such service, the skilled nursing facility shall submit a claim for payment under this title for such service under part B (without regard to whether or not the item or service was furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(C) MAINTAINING RECORDS ON SERVICES FURNISHED TO RESIDENTS.—Each skilled nursing facility receiving payments for extended care services under this title shall document on the facility's cost report all covered non-routine services furnished to all residents of the facility to whom the facility provided extended care services for which payment was made under part A during a fiscal year (beginning with fiscal year 1996) (without regard to whether or not the services were furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(1) IN GENERAL.—If a skilled nursing facility has received aggregate payments under subsection (b) for covered non-routine services during a cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to the cost reporting period amount determined under paragraph (2), the Secretary shall reduce the payments made to the facility with respect to such services for cost reporting periods beginning during the following fiscal year in an amount equal to such excess. The Secretary shall reduce payments under this subparagraph at such times and in such manner during a fiscal year as the Secretary finds necessary to meet the requirement of this subparagraph.

"(3) PROSPECTIVE REDUCTION IN PAYMENTS.—In addition to the process for reducing payments described in paragraph (1), the Secretary may reduce payments made to a facility under this section during a cost reporting period if the Secretary determines (on the basis of such estimated information as the Secretary considers appropriate) that payments to the facility under this section for the period will substantially exceed the cost reporting period amount for the period determined under this paragraph.

"(ii) ADJUSTMENT IF IMPLEMENTATION DELAYED.—If the amount under clause (i) is not established prior to the cost reporting period described in clause (i), the Secretary shall adjust such amount for stays after such amount is established in such a manner so as to recover any amounts in excess of the amounts which would have been paid for stays before such date if the amount had been in effect for such stays.

"(B) FACILITIES NOT HAVING 1994 COST REPORTING PERIOD.—In the case of a skilled nursing facility for which payments were not made under this title for covered non-routine services for the last 12-month cost reporting period ending on or before September 30, 1994, the per stay amount for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during fiscal year 1996 shall be the average of all per stay amounts determined under subparagraph (A).

"(2) AMOUNT FOR FISCAL YEAR 1997 AND SUBSEQUENT FISCAL YEARS.—The per stay amount for a skilled nursing facility for a 12-month cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year after 1996 is equal to the per stay amount established under this subsection for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during the preceding fiscal year (without regard to any adjustment under paragraph (1)(A)(ii)), increased by the greater of—

"(e) DETERMINATION OF FACILITY-SPECIFIC STAY AMOUNTS.—The 'facility-specific stay amount' for a skilled nursing facility for a cost reporting period is—

"(1) the sum of—

"(A) the amount of payments made to the facility under part A during the period which are attributable to covered non-routine services furnished during a stay; and

"(B) the Secretary's best estimate of the amount of payments made under part B during the period for covered non-routine services furnished to all residents of the facility to whom the facility provided extended care services for which payment was made under part A during the period (without regard to whether or not the services were furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise), as estimated by the Secretary; divided by

"(2) the average number of days per stay for all residents of the skilled nursing facility.

"(f) INTENSIVE NURSING OR THERAPY NEEDS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—In applying subsection (b) to covered non-routine services furnished during a stay beginning during a cost reporting period to a resident of a skilled nursing facility who requires intensive nursing or therapy services, the per stay amount for such resident shall be the per stay amount developed under paragraph (2) instead of the per stay amount determined under subsection (d)(1)(A).

"(2) PER STAY AMOUNT FOR INTENSIVE NEED RESIDENTS.—The Secretary, after consultation with the Prospective Payment Assessment Commission and skilled nursing facility experts, shall develop and publish a per stay amount for residents of a skilled nursing facility who require intensive nursing or therapy services.

"(3) BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under subsection (b) in a manner that ensures that total payments for covered non-routine services under this section are not greater or less than total payments for such services would have been but for the application of paragraph (1).

"(g) EXCEPTIONS AND ADJUSTMENTS TO AMOUNTS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may make exceptions and adjustments to the cost reporting period amounts applicable to a skilled nursing facility under subsection (c)(2) for a cost reporting period, except that the total amount of any additional payments made under this section for covered non-routine services during the cost reporting period as a result of such exceptions and adjustments may not exceed 5 percent of the aggregate payments made to all skilled nursing facilities for covered non-routine services during the cost reporting period (determined without regard to this paragraph).

"(2) BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under subsection (b) in a manner that ensures that total payments for covered non-routine services under this section are not greater or less than total payments for such services would have been but for the application of paragraph (1).

"(h) SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR MEDICARE LOW VOLUME SKILLED NURSING FACILITIES.—The Secretary shall determine an appropriate manner in which to apply this section, taking into account the purposes of this section, to non-routine costs of a skilled nursing facility for which payment is made for routine service costs during a cost reporting period on the basis of prospective payments under section 1888(d).

"(i) MAINTAINING SAVINGS FROM PAYMENT SYSTEM.—The prospective payment system established under section 1889 shall reflect the payment methodology established under this section for covered non-routine services.".

ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS

COMMERCIAL AVIATION FUEL TAX EXEMPTION

• Mr. SANTORUM. Mr. President, on January 31, 1995, I introduced my first bill as a U.S. Senator, S. 3004, the Commercial Aviation Fuel Tax Repeal Act. We are now on the verge of passing a budget which, for the first time in 26 years, will balance the Federal budget and eliminate the Federal deficit. I am proud to note that S. 304 has been incorporated to a great extent into this historic budget. As a result, I wish to take this time to mention the thousands of workers and the many unions and business professionals who have provided consistent support for this crucial piece of legislation.

First, I wish to submit for the record a resolution as passed by the National Aerospace Workforce Coalition. Throughout the debate on the aviation fuel tax issue, I worked closely with the National Aerospace Workforce Coalition. This organization consists of local unions and workforce associations. The coalition represents some 42 different unions in 29 States. Many of my colleagues have received letters and phone calls from coalition members in their States. The coalition believes, as I do, that a commercial aviation fuel tax will be extremely harmful to America's manufacturing base.

The resolution which I have submitted goes to the heart of the relationship between a tax on jet fuel and commercial aircraft orders, namely, that every increase in taxes on commercial jet fuel will be followed by more cancellations and deferred orders of American made engines and aircraft.

The labor unions supporting the repeal of this fuel tax include the spectrum of America's aerospace industrial base. This resolution has been passed by unions representing scientists and engineers, production workers, as well as unions engaged in casting and fabricating the specialized metals used in the production of modern aircraft.

Further, I wish to note that the International Association of Machinist and Aerospace Workers, District Lodge 141 passed a similarly worded resolution on October 24, 1995. This union represents 34,000 members at 13 airlines, and their delegates unanimously passed this resolution at their annual convention.

The balanced budget which the Senate will pass shortly relieves the airline industry from any unfair tax, but only for a limited time. Currently, the House of Representatives has extended the aviation fuel tax exemption for 2 years and the Senate shall extend it for only 17 months. I am pleased that in these difficult budgetary times both Chambers have recognized not only the unfairness of this unprecedented tax, but the critical need to avoid further hindering a struggling industry. However, absent outright repeal, I strongly believe that any extension of the exemption must run for at least 2 years. I will work hard during the House-Senate conference on the budget to ensure that the extension extends for at least this long. Further, it is critical for the Congress to address broader taxation and fee issues with respect to the airline industry during the next session of the 104th Congress. I will work to hold hearings on this issue in the spring of 1996.

The reasons for at least a 2-year extension are clear. U.S. airlines have lost money every year since 1990, with losses for the period totaling almost $13 billion. Almost one-half of all major U.S. airlines have filed for chapter 11 bankruptcy protection during the crisis, including America West, Continental, twice, TWA, twice, Eastern, Pan Am, and Midway. The last three have ceased operations altogether. Cumulative industry debt since 1990 has increased from $9 billion to $46 billion, and the bonds of all major U.S. airlines are rated as junk bonds. Airlines are facing Government-mandated fleet replacement costs to upgrade fleets to quiet technology aircraft that will exceed $15 billion a year through the rest of the decade. Imposing a fuel tax now, at a cost of $527 million a year, would wreak havoc on an industry struggling to survive.

In addition, the airline industry has historically paid excise and cargo fees in lieu of any fuel tax. These fees will exceed $6.9 billion in 1995. Imposing a fuel tax absent any broader effort at reassessing these other taxes would be both unprecedented and unfair.

Hence, for both fiscal and fairness reasons, an extension of the aviation fuel tax exemption is greatly needed. While we in the Senate have taken steps in the right direction by incorporating S. 304, in part, into this year's budget act, we must continue to ensure that the airline industry is taxed fairly. This industry is one of our Nation's last great manufacturing gains, and its tens of thousands of workers deserve the right to continue to uphold America's predominance in this critical industry.

I ask that the National Aerospace Workforce Coalition resolution referred to earlier be printed in the RECORD.

The resolution follows:

AVIATION FUEL TAX RESOLUTION

Whereas our country's airline industry has suffered enormous losses over the last five years, reducing airline employment by more than 120,000 workers and forcing remaining workers to accept reductions in wages and benefits;

Whereas several years ago government mandates required the airline companies to pay excise taxes and fees in lieu of a fuel tax, which today collectively amounts to more than 52 cents per gallon of fuel and places our nation's airline companies at a competitive disadvantage;

Whereas there is a direct relationship between a healthy airline industry and a healthy aerospace industry, and that only profitable airlines can modernize their fleets with American-built engines and aircraft to help revive an aerospace industry already devastated by drastic cuts in defense;

"(1) ENROLLEE COST-SHARING UNDER CHOICE PLAN MAY NOT EXCEED MEDICARE ENROLLEE COST.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), in no event may the average total amount of deductibles, coinsurance, and copayments charged an individual under a medicare choice plan with respect to basic benefits described in subsection (a)(1) for a year exceed the average total amount of deductibles, coinsurance, and copayments charged an individual under the traditional medicare program for a year.

"(2) HIGH DEDUCTIBLE PLANS.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to a high deductible plan described in section 1895A(b)(1)(B)(iii).

"(3) DETERMINATION ON OTHER BASIS.—If the Secretary determines that adequate data are not available to determine the average amount under paragraph (1), the Secretary may determine such amount with respect to all individuals in the medicare payment area, the State, or in the United States, eligible to enroll in such plan under this part or on the basis of other appropriate data.

"(d) NATIONAL COVERAGE DETERMINATION.—If there is a national coverage determination made in the period beginning on the date of an announcement under section 1895M(a) and ending on the date of the next announcement under such section and the Secretary projects that the determination will result in a significant change in the costs to the medicare choice plan of providing the benefits that are the subject of such national coverage determination and that such change in costs was not incorporated in the determination of the medicare payment amount included in the announcement made at the beginning of such period—

"(1) such determination shall not apply to contracts under this part until the first contract year that begins after the end of such period, and

"(2) if such coverage determination provides for coverage of additional benefits or coverage under additional circumstances, section 1895I(b)(2) shall not apply to payment for such additional benefits or benefits provided under such additional circumstances until the first contract year that begins after the end of such period, unless otherwise required by law.

"(e) OVERLAPPING PERIODS OF COVERAGE.—A contract under this part shall provide that in the case of an individual who is receiving inpatient hospital services from a subsection (d) hospital (as defined in section 1886(d)(1)(B)) as of the effective date of the individual's—

"(1) enrollment with a medicare choice plan under this part—

"(A) payment for such services until the date of the individual's discharge shall be made under this title as if the individual were not enrolled with the plan,

"(B) the plan sponsor shall not be financially responsible for payment for such services until the date after the date of the individual's discharge, and

"(C) the plan sponsor shall nonetheless be paid the full amount otherwise payable to the plan under this part, or

"(2) termination of enrollment with a medicare choice plan under this part—

"(A) the plan sponsor shall be financially responsible for payment for such services after such date and until the date of the individual's discharge.

"(B) payment for such services during the stay shall not be made under section 1886(d), and

"(C) the plan sponsor shall not receive any payment with respect to the individual under this part during the period the individual is not enrolled.

"(f) ORGANIZATION AS SECONDARY PAYER.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a medicare choice plan sponsor may (in the case of the provision of services to an individual under this part under circumstances in which payment is made secondary pursuant to section 1862(b)(2)) charge or authorize the provider of such services to charge, in accordance with the charges allowed under the law, plan, or policy which is the primary payer under such circumstances—

"(1) the insurance carrier, employer, or other entity which under such law, plan, or policy is to pay for the provision of such services, or

"(2) such individual to the extent that the individual has been paid under such law, plan, or policy for such services.

"SEC. 1895I. LICENSING AND FINANCIAL REQUIREMENTS.

"(a) LICENSING REQUIREMENT.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—A medicare choice plan sponsor shall be organized and licensed under applicable State law as a risk-bearing entity eligible to offer health insurance or health benefits coverage in each State in which the medicare choice plan enrolls individuals under this part.

"(2) EXCEPTION FOR UNION, TAFT-HARTLEY, OR ASSOCIATION PLANS.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply to a union or association plan described in section 1895A(b)(2) if such plan is exempt from such requirements under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974.

"(3) COORDINATED CARE PLANS.—Paragraph (1) shall apply to a coordinated care plan except to the extent provided in section 1895R.

"(b) ASSUMPTION OF FULL FINANCIAL RISK.—A medicare choice plan sponsor shall assume full financial risk on a prospective basis for the provision of health care services for which benefits are required to be provided under section 1895H(a)(1), except that such plan sponsor may—

"(1) obtain insurance or make other arrangements for the cost of such health care services the aggregate value of which exceeds $5,000 in any year,

"(2) obtain insurance or make other arrangements for the cost of such health care services provided to its enrolled members other than through the plan sponsor because medical necessity required their provision before they could be secured through the plan sponsor,

"(3) obtain insurance or make other arrangements for not more than 90 percent of the amount by which its costs for any of its fiscal years exceed 115 percent of its income for such fiscal year, and

"(4) make arrangements with physicians or other health professionals, health care institutions, or any combination of such individuals or institutions to assume all or part of the financial risk on a prospective basis for the provision of basic health services by the physicians or other health professionals or through the institutions.

"(c) PROTECTION AGAINST RISK OF INSOLVENCY.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—A medicare choice plan sponsor shall make adequate provision against the risk of insolvency (including provision to prevent enrollees from being held liable to any person or entity for the plan sponsor's debts in the event of the plan sponsor's insolvency)—

"(A) as determined by the Secretary, or

"(B) as determined by a State which the Secretary determines requires solvency standards at least as stringent as the standards under subparagraph (A).

"(2) FACTORS TO CONSIDER.—In establishing standards under paragraph (1) for coordinated care plans described in section 1895A(b)(1)(B)(ii), the Secretary shall consult with interested parties and shall take into account—

"(A) a coordinated care plan sponsor's delivery system assets and its ability to provide services directly to enrollees through affiliated providers, and

"(B) alternative means of protecting against insolvency, including reinsurance, unrestricted surplus, letters of credit, guarantees, organizational insurance coverage, and partnerships with other licensed entities.

The Secretary is not required to include alternative means described in subparagraph (B) in the standards but may consider such alternatives where consistent with the standards.

"(d) PAYMENTS TO THE PLAN.—

"(1) PREPAID PAYMENT.—A medicare choice plan sponsor shall be compensated (except for deductibles, coinsurance, and copayments) for the provision of health care services to individuals enrolled under this part by a payment by the Secretary (and if applicable, the individual) which is paid on a periodic basis without regard to the date the health care services are provided and which is fixed without regard to the frequency, extent, or kind of health care service actually provided to a member.

"(2) SOLE PAYMENTS.—Subject to subsections (d)(2) and (e) of section 1895H, if an individual is enrolled under this part with a medicare choice plan, only the plan sponsor shall be entitled to receive payments from the Secretary under this title for services furnished to the individual.

"SEC. 1895J. HEALTH PLAN STANDARDS.

"(a) IN GENERAL.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall meet the requirements of this section.

"(b) QUALITY ASSURANCE AND ACCREDITATION.—

"(1) INTERNAL REVIEW.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor must establish an ongoing quality assurance program (in accordance with regulations established by the Secretary) for health care services it provides to such individuals.

"(B) ELEMENTS OF PROGRAM.—The quality assurance program established under subparagraph (A) shall—

"(i) stress health outcomes,

"(ii) provide for the establishment of written protocols for utilization review, based on current standards of medical practice,

"(iii) provide review by physicians and other health care professionals of the process followed in the provision of such health care services,

"(iv) monitor and evaluate high-volume and high-risk services and the care of acute and chronic conditions,

"(v) evaluate the continuity and coordination of care that enrollees receive,

"(vi) have mechanisms to detect both underutilization and overutilization of services,

"(vii) after identifying areas for improvement, establish or alter practice parameters,

"(viii) take action to improve quality and assess the effectiveness of such action through systematic followup,

"(ix) make available information on quality and outcomes measures to facilitate beneficiary comparison and choice of health coverage options (in such form and on such quality and outcomes measures as the Secretary determines to be appropriate), and

"(x) provide that the program is evaluated on an ongoing basis as to its effectiveness.

"(2) EXTERNAL REVIEW.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall, for each medicare choice plan it operates, have an agreement with an independent quality review and improvement organization approved by the Secretary.

"(B) FUNCTIONS OF ORGANIZATION.—Each independent quality review and improvement organization with an agreement under subparagraph (A) shall—

"(i) provide an alternative mechanism for addressing enrollee grievances,

"(ii) review plan performance based on accepted quality performance criteria,

"(iii) promote and make plans accountable for improved plan performance,

"(iv) integrate into ongoing external quality assurance activities a new set of quality indicators and standards developed specifically for the medicare population that would be used to determine whether a plan is providing quality care and appropriate continuity and coordination of care, and

"(v) report to the Secretary on those plans that have demonstrated unwillingness or inability to improve their performance.

"(3) ACCREDITATION.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall be required—

"(A) to meet accreditation standards established by the Secretary, or

"(B) to be accredited by an external independent accrediting organization, recognized by the Secretary as requiring standards at least as stringent as the standards established under subparagraph (A).

"(4) ENCOUNTER DATA.—The Secretary shall create incentives for medicare choice plan sponsors to report aggregate encounter data, including data on physician visits, nursing home days, home health days, hospital inpatient days, and rehabilitation services.

"(c) ACCESS.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall—

"(1) make the services described in section 1895H(a) (and such other health care services as such individuals have contracted for) available and accessible to each such individual, within the medicare service area of the plan, with reasonable promptness, and in a manner which assures continuity,

"(2) provide for reimbursement with respect to such services which are provided to such an individual other than through the plan's providers, if—

"(A) the services were medically necessary and immediately required because of an unforeseen illness, injury, or condition, and

"(B) it was not reasonable given the circumstances to obtain the services through the plan's providers,

"(3) provide access to appropriate providers, including credentialed specialists, for all medically necessary treatment and services, and

"(4) except as provided by the Secretary on a case-by-case basis, in the case of a coordinated care plan described in section 1895A(b)(1)(B)(ii), provide primary care services within 30 minutes or 30 miles from an enrollee's place of residence if the enrollee resides in a rural area.

"(d) CAPACITY.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall provide the Secretary with a demonstration of the plan's capacity to adequately service the plan's expected enrollment of individuals under this part.

"(e) CONSUMER PROTECTIONS.—

"(1) NONDISCRIMINATION.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall provide assurances to the Secretary that it will not deny enrollment to, expel, or refuse to reenroll any such individual because of the individual's health status or requirements for health care services, and that it will notify each such individual of such fact at the time of the individual's enrollment. A medicare choice plan sponsor may not cancel or refuse to renew a beneficiary except in the case of fraud or nonpayment of premium amounts due the plan.

"(2) GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall provide meaningful procedures for hearing and resolving grievances between the plan (including any entity or individual through which the plan provides health care services) and members enrolled with the plan under this part.

"(B) HEARING REQUIREMENT.—A member enrolled with a medicare choice plan under this part who is dissatisfied by reason of his failure to receive any health service to which he believes he is entitled and at no greater charge than he believes he is required to pay is entitled, if the amount in controversy is $100 or more, to a hearing before the Secretary to the same extent as is provided in section 205(b), and in any such hearing the Secretary shall make the plan sponsor a party. If the amount in controversy is $1,000 or more, the individual or plan sponsor shall, upon notifying the other party, be entitled to judicial review of the Secretary's final decision as provided in section 205(g), and both the individual and the plan sponsor shall be entitled to be parties to that judicial review. In applying sections 205(b) and 205(g) as provided in this subparagraph, and in applying section 205(l) thereto, any reference therein to the Commissioner of Social Security or the Social Security Administration shall be considered a reference to the Secretary or the Department of Health and Human Services, respectively.

"(C) EXPEDITED REVIEW.—The Secretary shall provide an expedited review procedure under subparagraph (B) where a failure to receive any health care service or payment for such service would result in significant harm.

"(3) SUPPLEMENTAL COVERAGE IF PLAN TERMINATES THE CONTRACT.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor that provides items and services pursuant to a contract under this part shall provide assurances to the Secretary that in the event the contract is terminated, the sponsor shall provide or arrange for supplemental coverage of benefits under this title related to a preexisting condition with respect to any exclusion period, to all individuals enrolled with the entity who receive benefits under this title, for the lesser of 6 months or the duration of such period.

"(f) PROMPT PAYMENT.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall provide prompt payment (consistent with the provisions of sections 1816(c)(2) and 1842(c)(2)) of claims submitted for services and supplies furnished to individuals pursuant to such contract, if the services or supplies are not furnished under a contract between the plan and the provider or supplier.

"(2) DIRECT PAYMENT.—In the case of a medicare choice plan sponsor which the Secretary determines, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, has failed to make payments of amounts in compliance with paragraph (1), the Secretary may provide for direct payment of the amounts owed to providers and suppliers for such covered services furnished to individuals enrolled under this part under the contract. If the Secretary provides for such direct payments, the Secretary shall provide for an appropriate reduction in the amount of payments otherwise made to the plan sponsor under this part to reflect the amount of the Secretary's payments (and costs incurred by the Secretary in making such payments).

"(g) ADVANCE DIRECTIVES.—A contract under this part shall provide that a medicare choice plan sponsor shall meet the requirement of section 1866(f) (relating to maintaining written policies and procedures respecting advance directives).

"(h) TIMELY AUTHORIZATION FOR PROMPTLY NEEDED CARE IDENTIFIED AS A RESULT OF REQUIRED SCREENING EVALUATION.—

"(1) ACCESS TO PROCESS.—A medicare choice plan sponsor shall provide access 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to such persons as may be authorized to make any prior authorizations required by the plan sponsor for coverage of items and services (other than emergency services) that a treating physician or other emergency department personnel identify, pursuant to a screening evaluation required under section 1867(a), as being needed promptly by an individual enrolled with the organization under this part.

"(2) DEEMED APPROVAL.—A medicare choice plan sponsor is deemed to have approved a request for such promptly needed items and services if the physician or other emergency department personnel involved—

"(A) has made a reasonable effort to contact such a person for authorization to provide an appropriate referral for such items and services or to provide the items and services to the individual and access to the person has not been provided (as required in paragraph (1)), or

"(B) has requested such authorization from the person and the person has not denied the authorization within 30 minutes after the time the request is made.

"(3) EFFECT OF APPROVAL.—Approval of a request for a prior authorization determination (including a deemed approval under paragraph (2)) shall be treated as approval of a request for any items and services that are required to treat the medical condition identified pursuant to the required screening evaluation.

"(4) DEFINITION OF EMERGENCY SERVICES.—In this subsection, the term 'emergency services' means—

"(A) health care items and services furnished in the emergency department of a hospital (including a trauma center), and to the extent they are required to evaluate and treat an emergency medical condition (as defined in paragraph (5)) until the condition is stabilized.

"(B) ancillary services routinely available to such department,

"(5) EMERGENCY MEDICAL CONDITION.—In paragraph (4), the term 'emergency medical condition' means a medical condition, the onset of which is sudden, that manifests itself by symptoms of sufficient severity, including severe pain, that a prudent layperson, who possesses an average knowledge of health and medicine, could reasonably expect the absence of immediate medical attention to result in—

"(A) placing the person's health in serious jeopardy,

"(B) serious impairment to bodily functions, or

"(C) serious dysfunction of any bodily organ or part.

"Subpart 4—Determination of Medicare Payment Amounts and Rebates

"SEC. 1895M. MEDICARE PAYMENT AMOUNTS.

"(a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than July 31 of each calendar year (beginning with 1996), the Secretary shall determine, and announce in a manner intended to provide notice to interested parties, a standardized medicare payment amount determined in accordance with this section for the following calendar year for each medicare payment area.

"(b) CALCULATION OF STANDARDIZED MEDICARE PAYMENT AMOUNTS.—For purposes of this part—

"(1) 1997.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The standardized medicare payment amount for calendar year 1997 for a medicare payment area shall be equal to the sum of—

"(i) 50 percent of the modified per capita rate for calendar year 1996, and

"(ii) 50 percent of the adjusted average national per capita rate for calendar year 1996, increased by the percentage increase in the gross domestic product per capita for the 12-month period ending on June 30, 1996.

"(B) MODIFIED PER CAPITA RATE.—For purposes of subparagraph (A)(i), the modified per capita rate for calendar year 1996 for a medicare payment area shall be equal to the per capita rate which would have been determined (without regard to class) under section 1876(a)(1)(C) for 1995 if—

"(i) the applicable geographic area were the medicare payment area, and

"(ii) 50 percent of any payments attributable to sections 1886(d)(5)(B), 1886(h), and 1886(d)(5)(F) (relating to IME, GME, and DSH payments) were not taken into account, increased by the percentage increase which the Secretary estimates will occur in medicare expenditures per capita for 1996 over medicare expenditures per capita for 1995.

"(C) ADJUSTED AVERAGE NATIONAL PER CAPITA RATE.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of subparagraph (A)(ii), the adjusted average national per capita rate for a medicare payment area for calendar year 1996 shall be equal to the sum, for all types of medicare services (as classified by the Secretary), of the product for each such type of—

"(I) the average national per capita rate for 1996,

"(II) the proportion of such rate for the year which is attributable to such type of services, and

"(III) an index that reflects for 1996 and that type of service the relative input price of such services in the medicare payment area as compared to the national average input price of such services.

In applying subclause (III), the Secretary shall apply those indices that are used in applying (or updating) medicare payment rates for specific areas and localities.

"(ii) AVERAGE NATIONAL PER CAPITA RATE.—For purposes of clause (i), the average national per capita rate for 1996 is the weighted average of the modified per capita rates determined under subparagraph (B) for all medicare payment areas for 1996.

"(2) SUCCEEDING YEARS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The standardized medicare payment amount for any calendar year after 1997 in a medicare payment area shall be an amount equal to the standardized medicare payment amount determined for such area for the preceding year, increased by the percentage increase in the gross domestic product per capita for the 12-month period ending on June 30 of the preceding calendar year.

"(B) SPECIAL RULE FOR 1998.—In applying subparagraph (A) for 1998, the standardized medicare payment amount for the preceding calendar year shall be the amount which would have been determined if clause (ii) of paragraph (1)(B) had been applied by substituting '100 percent' for '50 percent'.

"(3) SPECIAL RULE FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH END-STAGE RENAL DISEASE.—In computing the standardized medicare payment amount for any medicare payment area, there shall not be taken into account any individuals with end-stage renal disease or any medicare expenditures for such individuals.

"(c) ADJUSTMENTS FOR PAYMENTS TO PLAN SPONSORS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The rate of payment under section 1895O to a medicare choice plan sponsor with respect to any individual enrolled in a medicare choice plan of the sponsor shall be equal to the standardized medicare payment amount for the medicare payment area, adjusted for such risk factors as age, disability status, gender, institutional status, health status, and such other factors as the Secretary determines to be appropriate, so as to ensure actuarial equivalence. The Secretary may add to, modify, or substitute for such classes, if such changes will improve the determination of actuarial equivalence.

"(2) SPECIAL RULE FOR END-STAGE RENAL DISEASE.—The Secretary shall establish a separate rate of payment under section 1895O to a medicare choice plan sponsor with respect to any individual with end-stage renal disease enrolled in a medicare choice plan of the sponsor. Such rate of payment shall be actuarially equivalent to rates paid to other enrollees in the medicare payment area (or such other area as specified by the Secretary).

"(d) GEOGRAPHICAL ADJUSTMENTS.—

"(1) ANNUAL ADJUSTMENTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Unless Congress provides otherwise, beginning with calendar years after 1999, the Secretary shall, based on the analysis under paragraph (2) and to the extent the Secretary determines necessary, make annual differential adjustments to the standardized medicare payment amounts determined under subsection (b)(2) for calendar years 2000 and 2001 in a manner designed to achieve appropriate and equitable variation in standardized medicare payment amounts across medicare payment areas by calendar year 2002. Such variation shall be reasonably related to measurable geographic differences in medicare payment areas.

"(B) BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall adjust the standardized medicare payment amounts under subsection (b) in a manner that ensures that total payments under this section for a year are not greater or less than total payments under this section would have been but for the application of subparagraph (A).

"(2) ANALYSIS.—The Secretary, in consultation with interested parties, shall conduct an analysis of the measurable input cost differences across medicare payment areas, including wage differentials, and other measurable variables identified by the Secretary. The Secretary shall also determine the degree to which medicare beneficiaries, including beneficiaries in rural and underserved areas, have access to more health plan choices by calendar year 2000 under this part, and the extent to which standardized medicare payment amounts have limited or enhanced such choices.

"(3) REPORT TO CONGRESS.—Not later than March 1, 1999, the Secretary shall submit a report to the appropriate committees of Congress that includes the results of the analysis described in paragraph (2) and the annual differential adjustments that the Secretary intends to implement under paragraph (1) for calendar years 2000 and 2001.

"(e) NOTICE IN CHANGES TO BENEFIT ASSUMPTIONS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—At least 45 days before making the announcement under subsection (a) for a year (beginning with the announcement for 1998), the Secretary shall provide for notice to medicare choice plans of proposed changes to be made in the methodology or benefit coverage assumptions from the methodology and assumptions used in the previous announcement and shall provide such plans an opportunity to comment on such proposed changes.

"(2) EXPLANATION.—In each announcement made under subsection (a) for a year (beginning with the announcement for 1998), the Secretary shall include an explanation of the assumptions (including any benefit coverage assumptions) and changes in methodology used in the announcement in sufficient detail so that medicare choice plans can compute medicare payment rates under subsection (d) for classes of individuals located in each medicare payment area which is in whole or in part within the medicare service area of such a plan.

"(f) DEMONSTRATION PROJECT ON MARKET-BASED REIMBURSEMENT AND COMPETITIVE PRICING.—The Secretary shall establish 1 or more demonstration projects to determine the standardized medicare payment amounts described in subsection (b) through competitive bidding by medicare choice plans in a medicare payment area. Not later than December 31, 2001, the Secretary shall submit a report to the Congress on the success of such projects in determining standardized medicare payment amounts that are reflective of market price.

"SEC. 1895N. PREMIUMS AND REBATES.

"(a) SUBMISSION AND CHARGING OF PREMIUMS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall file with the Secretary each year, in a form and manner and at a time specified by the Secretary, the amount of the monthly premium for coverage under each medicare choice plan it offers under this part in each medicare payment area in which the plan is being offered.

"(2) UNIFORM PREMIUM.—The premiums charged by a medicare choice plan sponsor under this part may not vary among individuals who reside in the same medicare payment area.

"(3) TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF IMPOSING PREMIUMS.—Each medicare choice plan sponsor shall permit the payment of monthly premiums on a monthly basis.

"(b) REBATES.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—If the standardized medicare payment amount for the medicare payment area in which an individual resides exceeds the amount of the monthly premium for the plan in which the individual is enrolled (as submitted under subsection (a)(1)), the Secretary shall—

"(A) in the case of an individual—

"(i) who is enrolled in a high deductible health plan described in section 1895A(b)(1)(B)(iii), deposit 100 percent of such excess in the medicare choice account specified by the individual, or

"(ii) who is not so enrolled but who elects the application of this clause, deposit 100 percent of such excess in the medicare choice account specified by the individual; or

"(B)(i) pay to the medicare choice plan sponsor on behalf of such individual the monthly amount equal to 100 percent of such excess up to the amount of the premium amount of such individual for supplemental benefits described in section 1895H(b).

"(ii) pay to such individual an amount equal to 75 percent of the remainder of such excess, and

"(iii) deposit the remainder of such excess in the Federal Hospital Insurance Trust Fund.

"(2) TIME FOR PAYMENT.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—A rebate under paragraph (1)(B)(ii) shall be paid as of the close of the calendar year to which the enrollment applied.

"(B) DEPOSITS IN MEDICARE CHOICE ACCOUNTS.—Deposits described in paragraph (1)(A) shall be made on a monthly basis.

"(C) OTHER PAYMENTS AND DEPOSITS.—Payments and deposits described in subparagraphs (B)(i) and (iii) shall be made on a monthly basis.

"(3) SOURCE OF REBATES.—Deposits and payments described in paragraph (1) shall be made in the same manner as payments are made under section 1895O(b).

"SEC. 1895O. PAYMENTS TO PLAN SPONSORS.

"(a) MONTHLY PAYMENTS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—For each individual enrolled with a plan under this part, the Secretary shall make monthly payments in advance to the medicare choice plan sponsor of the medicare choice plan with which the individual is enrolled in an amount equal to the medicare payment rate determined with respect to such individual under section 1895M(c).

"(2) RETROACTIVE ADJUSTMENTS.—The amount of payment under this paragraph may be retroactively adjusted to take into account any difference between the actual number of individuals enrolled in the plan under this section and the number of such individuals estimated to be so enrolled in determining the amount of the advance payment.

"(b) PAYMENTS FROM TRUST FUNDS.—The payment to a medicare choice plan sponsor under this section for a medicare-eligible individual shall be made from the Federal Hospital Insurance Trust Fund and the Federal Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Fund in such proportion as the Secretary determines reflects the relative weight that benefits under parts A and B are representative of the actuarial value of the total benefits under this part.

"Subpart 5—Contractual Authority; Temporary Certification; Regulations

"SEC. 1895P. GENERAL PERMISSION TO CONTRACT.

"The Secretary shall enter into a contract with any medicare choice plan sponsor in a medicare payment area if the requirements of this part are met with respect to the medicare choice plan and the plan sponsor.

"SEC. 1895Q. RENEWAL AND TERMINATION OF CONTRACT.

"(a) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subsection (b), each contract under this part may be made automatically renewable from term to term in the absence of notice by either party of intention to terminate at the end of the current term.

"(b) TERMINATION FOR CAUSE.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—In accordance with procedures established under paragraph (2), the Secretary may terminate any contact with a medicare choice plan sponsor at any time or may impose the intermediate sanctions described in paragraph (2) or (3) or subsection (f) (whichever is applicable) on the plan sponsor, if the Secretary finds that the plan sponsor—

"(A) has failed substantially to carry out the contract,

"(B) is carrying out the contract in a manner substantially inconsistent with the efficient and effective administration of this part, or

"(C) no longer substantially meets the applicable conditions of this part.

"(2) PROCEDURES.—The Secretary may terminate a contract with a medicare choice plan sponsor under this part or may impose the intermediate sanctions described in subsection (f)(3) on the plan in accordance with formal investigation and compliance procedures established by the Secretary under which—

"(A) the Secretary first provides the medicare choice plan sponsor with the reasonable opportunity to develop and implement a corrective action plan to correct the deficiencies that were the basis of the Secretary's determination under paragraph (1) and the medicare choice plan sponsor fails to develop or implement such a corrective action plan,

"(B) in deciding whether to impose sanctions, the Secretary considers aggravating factors such as whether a plan sponsor has a history of deficiencies or has not taken action to correct deficiencies the Secretary has brought to the plan sponsor's attention,

"(C) there are no unreasonable or unnecessary delays between the finding of a deficiency and the imposition of sanctions, and

"(D) the Secretary provides the plan sponsor with reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing (including the right to appeal an initial decision) before imposing any sanction or terminating the contract.

"(c) TERMS OF CONTRACT.—Each contract under this part—

"(1) shall provide that the Secretary, or any person or organization designated by the Secretary—

"(A) shall have the right to inspect or otherwise evaluate—

"(i) the quality, appropriateness, and timeliness of services performed under the contract, and

"(ii) the facilities of the plan sponsor when there is reasonable evidence of some need for such inspection,

"(B) shall have the right to audit and inspect any books and records of the plan sponsor that pertain—

"(i) to the ability of the plan sponsor to bear the risk of potential financial losses, and

"(ii) shall require the plan sponsor with a contract to provide (and pay for) written notice in advance of the contract's termination, as well as a description of alternatives for obtaining benefits under this title, to each individual enrolled under this part with the plan sponsor,

"(C)(i) except as provided by the Secretary, shall require the plan sponsor to comply with requirements similar to the requirements of subsections (a) and (c) of section 1318 of the Public Health Service Act (relating to disclosure of certain financial information) and section 1301(c)(8) of such Act (relating to liability arrangements to protect members),

"(ii) shall require the plan sponsor to provide and supply information (described in section 1866(b)(2)(C)(ii)) in the manner such information is required to be provided or supplied under that section, and

"(iii) shall require the plan sponsor to notify the Secretary of loans and other special financial arrangements which are made between the plan sponsor and subcontractors, affiliates, and related parties, and

"(D) shall contain such other terms and conditions not inconsistent with this part (including requiring the plan sponsor to provide the Secretary with such information) as the Secretary may find necessary and appropriate.

"(d) 5-YEAR LOCKOUT.—The Secretary may not enter into a contract under this part with a medicare choice plan sponsor if a previous contract with that plan sponsor under this part was terminated at the request of the plan sponsor within the preceding 5-year period, except in circumstances which warrant special consideration, as determined by the Secretary.

"(e) APPLICATION OF OTHER FEDERAL LAWS.—The authority vested in the Secretary by this part may be performed without regard to such provisions of law or regulations relating to the making, performance, amendment, or modification of contracts of the United States as the Secretary may determine to be inconsistent with the furtherance of the purpose of this title.

"(f) REMEDIES FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY.—

"(1) FAILURE OF PLAN SPONSOR TO COMPLY WITH CONTRACT.—If the Secretary determines that a medicare choice plan sponsor—

"(A) fails substantially to provide medically necessary items and services that are required (under law or under the contract) to be provided to an individual covered under the contract, and the failure has adversely affected (or has substantial likelihood of adversely affecting) the individual,

"(B) imposes cost sharing on individuals enrolled under this part in excess of the cost sharing permitted,

"(C) acts to expel or to refuse to re-enroll an individual in violation of the provisions of this part,

"(D) engages in any practice that would reasonably be expected to have the effect of denying or discouraging enrollment (except as permitted by this part) by eligible individuals with the plan whose medical condition or history indicates a need for substantial future medical services,

"(E) misrepresents or falsifies information that is furnished—

"(i) to the Secretary under this section, or

"(ii) to an individual or to any other entity under this section,

"(F) fails to comply with the requirements of section 1895J(f), or

(B) MATTERS INCLUDED.—The report submitted under subparagraph (A) shall include—

(i) the available and preferred systems of classifying rehabilitation patients relative to duration and intensity of inpatient services;

(ii) the means of calculating medicare program payments to reflect such patient requirements;

(iii) other adjustments deemed appropriate such as geographic variations in wages and other costs and outliers;

SEC. 7013. CAPITAL PAYMENTS FOR PPS HOSPITALS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1886(g)(1)(A) (42 U.S.C. 1395ww(g)(1)(A)) is amended by adding at the end the following new sentence: "In addition to the reduction described in the preceding sentence, for discharges occurring after September 30, 1995, the Secretary shall reduce by 7.47 percent the unadjusted standard Federal capital payment rate (as described in 42 CFR 412.308(c), as in effect on the date of the enactment of the Balanced Budget Reconciliation Act of 1995) and shall reduce by 8.27 percent the unadjusted hospital-specific rate (as described in 42 CFR 412.328(e)(1), as in effect on the date of the enactment of such Act).".

(b) BUDGET NEUTRALITY ADJUSTMENT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The second sentence of section 1886(g)(1)(A) (42 U.S.C. 1395ww(g)(1)(A)) is amended—

(A) by striking "fiscal years 1992 through 1995" and inserting "fiscal years 1996 through 2002"; and

(B) by striking "10 percent" and inserting "15 percent".

(c) HOSPITAL-SPECIFIC ADJUSTMENT FOR CAPITAL-RELATED TAX COSTS.—Section 1886(g)(1) (42 U.S.C. 1395ww(g)(1)) is amended—

(1) by redesignating subparagraph (C) as subparagraph (D), and

(2) by inserting after subparagraph (B) the following subparagraph:

"(C)(i) For discharges occurring after September 30, 1995, such system shall provide for an adjustment in an amount equal to the amount determined under clause (iv) for capital-related tax costs for each hospital that is eligible for such adjustment.

"(ii) Subject to clause (iii), a hospital is eligible for an adjustment under this subparagraph, with respect to discharges occurring in a fiscal year, if the hospital—

"(I) is a hospital that may otherwise receive payments under this subsection,

"(II) is not a public hospital, and

"(III) incurs capital-related tax costs for the fiscal year.

"(iii)(I) In the case of a hospital that first incurs capital-related tax costs in a fiscal year after fiscal year 1992 because of a change from nonproprietary to proprietary status or because the hospital commenced operation after such fiscal year, the first fiscal year for which the hospital shall be eligible for such adjustment is the second full fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the hospital first incurs such costs.

"(II) In the case of a hospital that first incurs capital-related tax costs in a fiscal year after fiscal year 1992 because of a change in State or local tax laws, the first fiscal year for which the hospital shall be eligible for such adjustment is the fourth full fiscal year following the fiscal year in which the hospital first incurs such costs.

"(iv) The per discharge adjustment under this clause shall be equal to the hospital-specific capital-related tax costs per discharge of a hospital for fiscal year 1992 (or, in the case of a hospital that first incurs capital-related tax costs for a fiscal year after fiscal year 1992, for the first full fiscal year for which such costs are incurred), updated to the fiscal year to which the adjustment applies. Such per discharge adjustment shall be added to the Federal capital rate, after such rate has been adjusted as described in 42 CFR 412.312 (as in effect on the date of the enactment of the Balanced Budget Reconciliation Act of 1995), and before such rate is multiplied by the applicable Federal rate percentage.

"(v) For purposes of this subparagraph, capital-related tax costs include—

"(I) the costs of taxes on land and depreciable assets owned by a hospital and used for patient care,

"(II) payments in lieu of such taxes (made by hospitals that are exempt from taxation), and

"(III) the costs of taxes paid by a hospital as lessee of land, buildings, or fixed equipment from a lessor that is unrelated to the hospital under the terms of a lease that requires the lessee to pay all expenses (including mortgage, interest, and amortization) and leaves the lessor with an amount free of all claims (sometimes referred to as a 'net net net' or 'triple net' lease). In determining the adjustment required under clause (i), the Secretary shall not take into account any capital-related tax costs of a hospital to the extent that such costs are based on tax rates and assessments that exceed those for similar commercial properties.

"(vi) The system shall provide that the Federal capital rate for any fiscal year after September 30, 1995, shall be reduced by a percentage sufficient to ensure that the adjustments required to be paid under clause (i) for a fiscal year neither increase nor decrease the total amount that would have been paid under this system but for the payment of such adjustments for such fiscal year.".

"(ii) The minimum payment level for qualifying hospitals shall be 80 percent.

"(iii) A hospital shall be considered to meet the requirement that it completes the project involved no later than the end of the hospital's last cost reporting period beginning after October 1, 2001, if—

"(I) the hospital has obtained a certificate of need for the project approved by the State or a local planning authority by September 1, 1995, and

"(II) by September 1, 1995, the hospital has expended on the project at least $750,000 or 10 percent of the estimated cost of the project.

"(iv) Offsetting amounts, as described in 42 CFR 412.348(g)(8)(ii), shall apply except that subparagraph (B) of such section shall be revised to require that the additional payment that would otherwise be payable for the cost reporting period shall be reduced by the amount (if any) by which the hospital's current year medicare capital payments (excluding, if applicable, 75 percent of the hospital's capital-related disproportionate share payments) exceeds its medicare capital costs for such year.".

(2) LIMIT TO ADDITIONAL PAYMENTS.—The amendment made by subsection (a) shall not result in aggregate additional payments under the special exception process described in section 1886(b)(1)(D) for fiscal years 1996 through 2000 in excess of an amount equal to the sum of $50,000,000 per year more than would have been paid in such fiscal years if such amendment had not been enacted.

Such payments shall constitute payment for capital costs and all routine and non-routine service costs covered under this title that are furnished to individuals who are inpatients of skilled nursing facilities during such benefit period, except for physicians' services. The payment amounts shall vary depending on case-mix, patient acuity, and such other factors as the Secretary determines are appropriate. The prospective payment system shall apply for cost reporting periods (or portions of cost reporting periods) beginning on or after October 1, 1997.

"(b) 90 PERCENT OF LEVELS OTHERWISE IN EFFECT.—The Secretary shall establish the prospective payment amounts under subsection (a) at levels such that, in the Secretary's estimation, the amount of total payments under this title shall not exceed 90 percent of the amount of payments that would have been made under this title for all routine and non-routine services and capital expenditures if this section had not been enacted.

"(c) ADJUSTMENT IN RATES TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT BENEFICIARY COST-SHARING.—The Secretary shall reduce the prospective payment rates established under this section to take into account the beneficiary coinsurance amount required under section 1813(a)(3).".

The Secretary may adjust such payments if the Secretary determines (on the basis of such estimated information as the Secretary considers appropriate) that payments to the facility under this paragraph for a cost reporting period would substantially exceed the cost reporting period amount determined under subsection (c)(2).

"(3) RESPONSIBILITY OF SKILLED NURSING FACILITY TO MANAGE BILLINGS.—

"(A) CLARIFICATION RELATING TO PART A BILLING.—In the case of a covered non-routine service furnished to an individual who (at the time the service is furnished) is a resident of a skilled nursing facility who is entitled to coverage under section 1812(a)(2) for such service, the skilled nursing facility shall submit a claim for payment under this title for such service under part A (without regard to whether or not the item or service was furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(B) PART B BILLING.—In the case of a covered non-routine service furnished to an individual who (at the time the service is furnished) is a resident of a skilled nursing facility who is not entitled to coverage under section 1812(a)(2) for such service but is entitled to coverage under part B for such service, the skilled nursing facility shall submit a claim for payment under this title for such service under part B (without regard to whether or not the item or service was furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(C) MAINTAINING RECORDS ON SERVICES FURNISHED TO RESIDENTS.—Each skilled nursing facility receiving payments for extended care services under this title shall document on the facility's cost report all covered non-routine services furnished to all residents of the facility to whom the facility provided extended care services for which payment was made under part A during a fiscal year (beginning with fiscal year 1996) (without regard to whether or not the services were furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility, under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise).

"(c) NO PAYMENT IN EXCESS OF PRODUCT OF PER STAY AMOUNT AND NUMBER OF STAYS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—If a skilled nursing facility has received aggregate payments under subsection (b) for covered non-routine services during a cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to the cost reporting period amount determined under paragraph (2), the Secretary shall reduce the payments made to the facility with respect to such services for cost reporting periods beginning during the following fiscal year in an amount equal to such excess. The Secretary shall reduce payments under this subparagraph at such times and in such manner during a fiscal year as the Secretary finds necessary to meet the requirement of this subparagraph.

"(2) COST REPORTING PERIOD AMOUNT.—The cost reporting period amount determined under this subparagraph is an amount equal to the product of—

"(A) the per stay amount applicable to the facility under subsection (d) for the period; and

"(B) the number of stays beginning during the period for which payment was made to the facility for such services.

"(3) PROSPECTIVE REDUCTION IN PAYMENTS.—In addition to the process for reducing payments described in paragraph (1), the Secretary may reduce payments made to a facility under this section during a cost reporting period if the Secretary determines (on the basis of such estimated information as the Secretary considers appropriate) that payments to the facility under this section for the period will substantially exceed the cost reporting period amount for the period determined under this paragraph.

"(d) DETERMINATION OF FACILITY PER STAY AMOUNT.—

"(1) AMOUNT FOR FISCAL YEAR 1996.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—

"(i) ESTABLISHMENT.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B) and clause (ii), the Secretary shall establish a per stay amount for each nursing facility for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during fiscal year 1996 that is the facility-specific stay amount for the facility (as determined under subsection (e)) for the last 12-month cost reporting period ending on or before September 30, 1994, increased (in a compounded manner) by the SNF market basket percentage increase (as defined in subsection (a)(2)) for each fiscal year through fiscal year 1996.

"(ii) ADJUSTMENT IF IMPLEMENTATION DELAYED.—If the amount under clause (i) is not established prior to the cost reporting period described in clause (i), the Secretary shall adjust such amount for stays after such amount is established in such a manner so as to recover any amounts in excess of the amounts which would have been paid for stays before such date if the amount had been in effect for such stays.

"(B) FACILITIES NOT HAVING 1994 COST REPORTING PERIOD.—In the case of a skilled nursing facility for which payments were not made under this title for covered non-routine services for the last 12-month cost reporting period ending on or before September 30, 1994, the per stay amount for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during fiscal year 1996 shall be the average of all per stay amounts determined under subparagraph (A).

"(2) AMOUNT FOR FISCAL YEAR 1997 AND SUBSEQUENT FISCAL YEARS.—The per stay amount for a skilled nursing facility for a 12-month cost reporting period beginning during a fiscal year after 1996 is equal to the per stay amount established under this subsection for the 12-month cost reporting period beginning during the preceding fiscal year (without regard to any adjustment under paragraph (1)(A)(ii)), increased by the greater of—

"(A) the SNF market basket percentage increase for such subsequent fiscal year minus 2.5 percentage points; or

"(B) 1.2 percent (1.1 percent for fiscal years after 1997).

"(e) DETERMINATION OF FACILITY-SPECIFIC STAY AMOUNTS.—The 'facility-specific stay amount' for a skilled nursing facility for a cost reporting period is—

"(1) the sum of—

"(A) the amount of payments made to the facility under part A during the period which are attributable to covered non-routine services furnished during a stay; and

"(B) the Secretary's best estimate of the amount of payments made under part B during the period for covered non-routine services furnished to all residents of the facility to whom the facility provided extended care services for which payment was made under part A during the period (without regard to whether or not the services were furnished by the facility, by others under arrangement with them made by the facility under any other contracting or consulting arrangement, or otherwise), as estimated by the Secretary; divided by

"(2) the average number of days per stay for all residents of the skilled nursing facility.

"(f) INTENSIVE NURSING OR THERAPY NEEDS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—In applying subsection (b) to covered non-routine services furnished during a stay beginning during a cost reporting period to a resident of a skilled nursing facility who requires intensive nursing or therapy services, the per stay amount for such resident shall be the per stay amount developed under paragraph (2) instead of the per stay amount determined under subsection (d)(1)(A).

"(2) PER STAY AMOUNT FOR INTENSIVE NEED RESIDENTS.—The Secretary, after consultation with the Prospective Payment Assessment Commission and skilled nursing facility experts, shall develop and publish a per stay amount for residents of a skilled nursing facility who require intensive nursing or therapy services.

"(3) BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under subsection (b) in a manner that ensures that total payments for covered non-routine services under this section are not greater or less than total payments for such services would have been but for the application of paragraph (1).

"(g) EXCEPTIONS AND ADJUSTMENTS TO AMOUNTS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary may make exceptions and adjustments to the cost reporting period amounts applicable to a skilled nursing facility under subsection (c)(2) for a cost reporting period, except that the total amount of any additional payments made under this section for covered non-routine services during the cost reporting period as a result of such exceptions and adjustments may not exceed 5 percent of the aggregate payments made to all skilled nursing facilities for covered non-routine services during the cost reporting period (determined without regard to this paragraph).

"(2) BUDGET NEUTRALITY.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under subsection (b) in a manner that ensures that total payments for covered non-routine services under this section are not greater or less than total payments for such services would have been but for the application of paragraph (1).

"(h) SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR MEDICARE LOW VOLUME SKILLED NURSING FACILITIES.—The Secretary shall determine an appropriate manner in which to apply this section, taking into account the purposes of this section, to non-routine costs of a skilled nursing facility for which payment is made for routine service costs during a cost reporting period on the basis of prospective payments under section 1888(d).

"(i) MAINTAINING SAVINGS FROM PAYMENT SYSTEM.—The prospective payment system established under section 1889 shall reflect the payment methodology established under this section for covered non-routine services.".

"(1) IN GENERAL.—If this section applies to an individual for any calendar year, the monthly premium otherwise applicable under section 1839 for each month during the calendar year shall be increased by an amount equal to the supplemental Medicare part B premium.

"(2) INDIVIDUALS TO WHOM SECTION APPLIES.—This section shall apply to any individual for a calendar year if—

"(A) the individual is covered under this part for any month during the calendar year, and

"(B) the modified adjusted gross income of the taxpayer for the taxable year beginning in the calendar year exceeds the threshold amount.

"(b) PREMIUMS TO BE DEDUCTED BASED ON ESTIMATED AMOUNTS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Each individual shall—

"(A) during the medicare open enrollment period under section 1895G(b)(1), or

"(B) during any other medicare enrollment period applicable to the individual under section 1895G(b)(2), include with the medicare enrollment an estimate of the taxpayer's modified adjusted gross income for the following calendar year.

"(2) INDIVIDUALS NOT FILING ENROLLMENT FORM.—If an individual does not file a medicare enrollment form for any enrollment period applicable to the individual and the individual's coverage under this part continues without modification by reason of the failure to file, the individual's modified adjusted gross income shall be determined on the basis of the most recent information available to the Secretary from prior enrollment forms, the Secretary of the Treasury under section 6103(l)(15), or otherwise.

"(3) INDIVIDUALS FILING INCORRECT ENROLLMENT FORMS.—If, on the basis of information obtained from the Secretary of the Treasury under section 6103(l)(15), the Secretary determines that the information included with a medicare enrollment form under paragraph (1) is incorrect, the individual's modified adjusted gross income shall be determined on the basis of the information obtained from the Secretary of the Treasury.

"(4) TRANSFER OF INFORMATION.—The Secretary shall notify the applicable agency under section 1840 of—

Such premium shall remain in effect until another premium takes effect under this subsection or there is an increase in the premium determined without regard to this section.

"(c) SUPPLEMENTAL MEDICARE PART B PREMIUM.—For purposes of subsection (a)—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The supplemental Medicare part B premium for any month is an amount equal to the excess of—

"(A) 200 percent of the monthly actuarial rate for enrollees age 65 and over determined under subsection 1839(a)(1) for such month, over

"(B) the total monthly premium under section 1839 (determined without regard to subsections (b) and (f) of section 1839).

"(2) PHASEIN OF SUPPLEMENTAL PREMIUM.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—If the modified adjusted gross income of the taxpayer for any taxable year exceeds the threshold amount by less than $50,000, the supplemental Medicare part B premium under this section for months in the calendar year in which the taxable year begins shall be an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount of the premium (without regard to this paragraph) as such excess bears to $50,000. The preceding sentence shall not apply to any individual whose threshold amount is zero.

"(B) PHASEIN RANGE FOR JOINT RETURNS.—In the case of a joint return under section 6013 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, subparagraph (A) shall be applied by substituting '$75,000' for '$50,000' each place it appears.

"(d) VERIFICATION AND ADJUSTMENTS OF SUPPLEMENTAL PREMIUMS.—

"(1) VERIFICATION.—Each individual to whom this section applies shall, on the basis of information shown on the return of tax imposed by chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 for any taxable year, determine the difference (if any) between—

"(A) the aggregate supplemental Medicare part B premiums imposed by this section for months during the calendar year in which the taxable year begins, and

"(B) the aggregate amount of premiums deducted and paid under section 1840 for such months with respect to the individual.

Such determination shall be included on a form prescribed by the Secretary and the form shall be submitted to the Secretary at such time and in such manner as the Secretary shall prescribe.

"(2) DEFICIENCY ADJUSTMENTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—If the amount under paragraph (1)(A) exceeds the amount under paragraph (1)(B), the individual shall include with the form required to be filed under paragraph (1) a separate check made payable to the Secretary in an amount equal to such excess plus interest determined under subparagraph (B).

"(i) IN GENERAL.—The amount of interest taken into account shall be the sum of the amounts determined under clause (ii) for each of the months in the taxable year.

For purposes of this clause, payments shall be applied to months in order, beginning with the earliest.

"(iii) SAFE-HARBOR EXCEPTION.—No interest shall be imposed for any month if the individual's estimate of modified adjusted gross income under subsection (b) on which the supplemental Medicare part B premium for the month was based was not less than the individual's modified adjusted gross income determined on the basis of information shown on the return of tax imposed by chapter 1 of such Code for the taxable year ending with or within the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which the estimate was made.

"(3) OVERPAYMENT ADJUSTMENTS.—If the amount under paragraph (1)(B) exceeds the amount under paragraph (1)(A), the Secretary shall, at the Secretary's discretion—

"(A) credit such excess against any supplemental premium required under this section, or

"(B) make a payment to the individual in the amount of such excess.

"(4) ADJUSTMENTS BY SECRETARY.—If the Secretary determines, on the basis of information received from the Secretary of the Treasury under section 6103(l)(15), that there was an underpayment or overpayment of the aggregate supplemental Medicare part B premiums for months during any taxable year (after any other adjustment under this subsection), the Secretary shall—

"(A) notify the individual of such underpayment or overpayment,

"(B) in the case of an underpayment, give such individual an opportunity for a hearing with respect to such underpayment and a reasonable time for payment of such underpayment and interest determined under paragraph (2)(B), and

"(C)(i) collect the amount of any underpayment and interest not paid under subparagraph (B) in such manner as the Secretary may prescribe, and

"(ii) take the actions described in paragraph (3) with respect to any overpayment.

"(5) TRANSFERS TO TRUST FUND.—Amounts equal to amounts paid under paragraphs (2)(A), (4)(B), and (4)(C)(i) shall be deposited into the Federal Supplementary Medical Insurance Trust Fund.

"(b) ESTABLISHMENT OF PER VISIT RATE FOR EACH TYPE OF SERVICES.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall, subject to paragraph (3), establish a per visit payment rate for a home health agency in an area (which shall be the same area used to determine the area wage index applicable to hospitals under section 1886(d)(3)(E)) for each type of home health service described in subsection (a)(2). Such rate shall be equal to the national per visit payment rate determined under paragraph (2) for each such type, except that the labor-related portion of such rate shall be adjusted by the area wage index applicable under section 1886(d)(3)(E) for the area in which the agency is located.

"(2) NATIONAL PER VISIT PAYMENT RATE.—The national per visit payment rate for each type of service described in subsection (a)(2)—

"(A) for fiscal year 1997, is an amount equal to the national average amount paid per visit under this title to home health agencies for such type of service during the most recent 12-month cost reporting period ending on or before June 30, 1994; and

"(B) for each subsequent fiscal year, is an amount equal to the national per visit payment rate in effect for the preceding fiscal year, increased by the greater of—

"(ii) 1.1 percent (1.2 percent in fiscal year 1997).

"(3) REBASING OF RATES.—The Secretary shall adjust the national per visit payment rates under this subsection for cost reporting periods beginning on or after October 1, 1999, and every 2 years thereafter, to reflect the most recent available data.

"(4) HOME HEALTH MARKET BASKET PERCENTAGE INCREASE.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'home health market basket percentage increase' means, with respect to a fiscal year, a percentage (estimated by the Secretary before the beginning of the fiscal year) determined and applied with respect to the types of home health services described in subsection (a)(2) in the same manner as the market basket percentage increase under section 1886(b)(3)(B)(iii) is determined and applied to inpatient hospital services for the fiscal year.

"(c) PER EPISODE LIMIT.—

"(1) AGGREGATE LIMIT.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), a home health agency may not receive aggregate per visit payments under subsection (a) for a fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to the sum of the following products determined for each case-mix category for which the agency receives payments:

"(i) The number of episodes of each such case-mix category during the fiscal year; multiplied by

"(ii) the per episode limit determined for such case-mix category for such fiscal year.

"(B) ESTABLISHMENT OF PER EPISODE LIMITS.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—The per episode limit for a fiscal year for any case-mix category for the area in which a home health agency is located (which shall be the same area used to determine the area wage index applicable to hospitals under section 1886(d)(3)(E)) is equal to—

"(I) the mean number of visits for each type of home health service described in subsection (a)(2) furnished during an episode of such case-mix category in such area during fiscal year 1994, adjusted by the case-mix adjustment factor determined in clause (ii) for the fiscal year involved; multiplied by

"(II) the per visit payment rate established under subsection (b) for such type of home health service for the fiscal year for which the determination is being made.

"(ii) CASE-MIX ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.—For purposes of clause (i), the case-mix adjustment factor for—

"(I) each of fiscal years 1997 through 2000 is the factor determined by the Secretary to assure that aggregate payments for home health services under this section during the year will not exceed the payment for such services during the previous year as a result of changes in the number and type of home health visits within case-mix categories over the previous year; and

"(II) each subsequent fiscal year, is the factor determined by the Secretary to necessary remove the effects of case-mix increases due to reporting improvements instead of real changes in patients' resource usage.

"(iii) REBASING OF PER EPISODE LIMITS.—Beginning with fiscal year 1999 and every 2 years thereafter, the Secretary shall revise the mean number of home health visits determined under clause (i)(I) for each type of home health service visit described in subsection (a)(2) furnished during an episode in a case-mix category to reflect the most recently available data on the number of visits.

"(iv) DETERMINATION OF AREA.—In the case of an area which the Secretary determines has insufficient number of home health agencies to establish an appropriate per episode limit, the Secretary may establish an area other than the area used to determine the area wage under section 1886(d)(3)(E)) for purposes of establishing an appropriate per episode limit.

"(C) CASE-MIX CATEGORY.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'case-mix category' means each of the 18 case-mix categories established under the Home Health Agency Prospective Payment Demonstration Project conducted by the Health Care Financing Administration. The Secretary may develop an alternate methodology for determining case-mix categories.

"(D) EPISODE.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'episode' means, with respect to a cost reporting period, the continuous 120-day period that—

"(i) begins on the date of an individual's first visit for a type of home health service described in subsection (a)(2) for a case-mix category, and

"(ii) is immediately preceded by a 60-day period in which the individual did not receive visits for a type of home health service described in subsection (a)(2).

"(E) EXEMPTIONS AND EXCEPTIONS.—The Secretary may provide for exemptions and exceptions to the limits established under this paragraph for a fiscal year as the Secretary deems appropriate, to the extent such exemptions and exceptions do not result in greater payments under this section than the exemptions and exceptions provided under section 1861(v)(1)(L)(ii) in fiscal year 1994, increased by the home health market basket percentage increase for the fiscal year involved (as defined in subsection (b)(4)).

"(2) RECONCILIATION OF AMOUNTS.—

"(A) PAYMENTS IN EXCESS OF LIMITS.—Subject to subparagraph (B), if a home health agency has received aggregate per visit payments under subsection (a) for a fiscal year in excess of the amount determined under paragraph (1) with respect to such home health agency for such fiscal year, the Secretary shall, in such manner as the Secretary considers appropriate, reduce the payments under this section to the home health agency in the following fiscal year by the amount of such excess.

"(B) EXCEPTION FOR HOME HEALTH SERVICES FURNISHED OVER A PERIOD GREATER THAN 165 DAYS.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), the amount of aggregate per visit payments determined under subsection (a) shall not include payments for home health visits furnished to an individual on or after a continuous period of more than 165 days after an individual begins an episode described in subsection (c)(1)(D) (if such period is not interrupted by the beginning of a new episode).

"(ii) REQUIREMENT OF CERTIFICATION.—Clause (i) shall not apply if the agency has not obtained a physician's certification with respect to the individual requiring such visits that includes a statement that the individual requires such continued visits, the reason for the need for such visits, and a description of such services furnished during such visits.

"(C) SHARE OF SAVINGS.—

"(i) BONUS PAYMENTS.—If a home health agency has received aggregate per visit payments under subsection (a) for a fiscal year in an amount less than the amount determined under paragraph (1) with respect to such home health agency for such fiscal year, the Secretary shall pay such home health agency a bonus payment equal to 50 percent of the difference between such amounts in the following fiscal year, except that the bonus payment may not exceed 5 percent of the aggregate per visit payments made to the agency for the prior year without regard to clause (ii).

"(ii) INSTALLMENT BONUS PAYMENTS.—The Secretary may make installment payments during a fiscal year to a home health agency based on the estimated bonus payment that the agency would be eligible to receive with respect to such fiscal year.

"(d) MEDICAL REVIEW PROCESS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall implement a medical review process (with a particular emphasis on fiscal years 1997 and 1998) for the system of payments described in this section that shall provide an assessment of the pattern of care furnished to individuals receiving home health services for which payments are made under this section to ensure that such individuals receive appropriate home health services. Such review process shall focus on low-cost cases described in subsection (e)(3) and cases described in subsection (c)(2)(B) and shall require recertification by intermediaries at 30, 60, 90, 120, and 165 days into an episode described in subsection (c)(1)(D).

"(2) USING OF ORGANIZATIONS TO CONDUCT REVIEWS.—The Secretary may use public or private organizations to conduct medical reviews in accordance with this subsection.

"(e) ADJUSTMENT OF PAYMENTS TO AVOID CIRCUMVENTION OF LIMITS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall provide for appropriate adjustments to payments to home health agencies under this section to ensure that agencies do not circumvent the purpose of this section by—

"(A) discharging patients to another home health agency or similar provider;

"(B) altering corporate structure or name to avoid being subject to this section or for the purpose of increasing payments under this title; or

"(C) undertaking other actions considered unnecessary for effective patient care and intended to achieve maximum payments under this title.

"(2) TRACKING OF PATIENTS THAT SWITCH HOME HEALTH AGENCIES DURING EPISODE.—

"(A) DEVELOPMENT OF SYSTEM.—The Secretary shall develop a system that tracks home health patients that receive home health services described in subsection (a)(2) from more than 1 home health agency during an episode described in subsection (c)(1)(D).

"(B) ADJUSTMENT OF PAYMENTS.—The Secretary shall adjust payments under this section to each home health agency that furnishes an individual with a type of home health service described in subsection (a)(2) to ensure that aggregate payments on behalf of such individual during such episode do not exceed the amount that would be paid under this section if the individual received such services from a single home health agency.

"(3) LOW-COST CASES.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall develop and implement a system designed to adjust payments to a home health agency for a fiscal year to eliminate any increase in growth of the percentage distribution of low-cost episodes for which home health services are furnished by the agency over such percentage distribution determined for the agency under subparagraph (B).

"(B) DISTRIBUTION.—The Secretary shall profile each home health agency to determine the distribution of all episodes by length of stay for each agency during the agency's first 12-month cost reporting period beginning during fiscal year 1994. The Secretary shall calculate the 25th percentile distribution for each agency for low-cost episodes.

"(C) LOW-COST EPISODE.—For purposes of this paragraph, the Secretary shall define a low-cost episode in a manner that provides that a home health agency has an incentive to be cost efficient in delivering home health services and that the volume of such services does not increase as a result of factors other than patient needs.

"(f) REPORT BY PROSPECTIVE PAYMENT ASSESSMENT COMMISSION.—During the first 3 years in which payments are made under this section, the Prospective Payment Assessment Commission shall annually submit a report to Congress on the effectiveness of the payment methodology established under this section that shall include recommendations regarding the following:

"(1) Case-mix and volume increases.

"(2) Quality monitoring of home health agency practices.

"(3) Whether a capitated payment for home care patients receiving care during a continuous period exceeding 165 days is warranted.

"(5) On the adequacy of the exemptions and exceptions to the limits provided under subsection (c)(1)(E).

"(6) The appropriateness of the methods provided under this section to adjust the per episode limits and annual payment updates to reflect changes in the mix of services, number of visits, and assignment to case categories to reflect changing patterns of home health care.

"(7) The geographic areas used to determine the per episode limits.".

"(3) AGGREGATE LIMIT ON NEW OBLIGATION AUTHORITY.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this subsection, subject to subparagraph (C), the aggregate limit on new obligation authority, for a fiscal year, is the pool amount under subsection (b) for the fiscal year, divided by the payout adjustment factor (described in subparagraph (B)) for the fiscal year.

"(B) PAYOUT ADJUSTMENT FACTOR.—For purposes of this subsection, the payout adjustment factor—

"(i) for fiscal year 1996 is .950;

"(ii) for fiscal year 1997 is .986; and

The total of such amounts shall equal the dollar amount specified in paragraph (3)(C)(ii).

"(1) an amount equal to the Federal medical assistance percentage (as defined in subsection (c)) of the total amount expended during such quarter as medical assistance under the plan; plus

"(2) an amount equal to the Federal medical assistance percentage of the total amount expended during such quarter for medically-related services (as defined in section 2112(d)(2)); plus

"(3) an amount equal to—

"(A) 90 percent of the amounts expended during such quarter for the design, development, and installation of information systems and for providing incentives to promote the enforcement of medical support orders, plus

"(C) 50 percent of so much of the remainder of the amounts expended during such quarter as are expended by the State in the administration of the State plan.

"(b) PAYMENT PROCESS.—

"(1) QUARTERLY ESTIMATES.—Prior to the beginning of each quarter, the Secretary shall estimate the amount to which a State will be entitled under subsection (a) for such quarter, such estimates to be based on (A) a report filed by the State containing its estimate of the total sum to be expended in such quarter in accordance with the provisions of such subsections, and stating the amount appropriated or made available by the State and its political subdivisions for such expenditures in such quarter, and if such amount is less than the State's proportionate share of the total sum of such estimated expenditures, the source or sources from which the difference is expected to be derived, and (B) such other investigation as the Secretary may find necessary.

"(2) PAYMENT.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall then pay to the State, in such installments as the Secretary may determine and in accordance with section 6503(a) of title 31, United States Code, the amount so estimated, reduced or increased to the extent of any overpayment or underpayment which the Secretary determines was made under this section (or section 1903) to such State for any prior quarter and with respect to which adjustment has not already been made under this subsection (or under section 1903(d)).

"(B) TREATMENT AS OVERPAYMENTS.—Expenditures for which payments were made to the State under subsection (a) shall be treated as an overpayment to the extent that the State or local agency administering such plan has been reimbursed for such expenditures by a third party pursuant to the provisions of its plan in compliance with section 2135.

"(C) RECOVERY OF OVERPAYMENTS.—For purposes of this subsection, when an overpayment is discovered, which was made by a State to a person or other entity, the State shall have a period of 60 days in which to recover or attempt to recover such overpayment before adjustment is made in the Federal payment to such State on account of such overpayment. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (D), the adjustment in the Federal payment shall be made at the end of the 60 days, whether or not recovery was made.

"(D) NO ADJUSTMENT FOR UNCOLLECTABLES.—In any case where the State is unable to recover a debt which represents an overpayment (or any portion thereof) made to a person or other entity on account of such debt having been discharged in bankruptcy or otherwise being uncollectable, no adjustment shall be made in the Federal payment to such State on account of such overpayment (or portion thereof).

"(3) FEDERAL SHARE OF RECOVERIES.—The pro rata share to which the United States is equitably entitled, as determined by the Secretary, of the net amount recovered during any quarter by the State or any political subdivision thereof with respect to medical assistance furnished under the State plan shall be considered an overpayment to be adjusted under this subsection.

"(4) TIMING OF OBLIGATION OF FUNDS.—Upon the making of any estimate by the Secretary under this subsection, any appropriations available for payments under this section shall be deemed obligated.

"(5) DISALLOWANCES.—In any case in which the Secretary estimates that there has been an overpayment under this section to a State on the basis of a claim by such State that has been disallowed by the Secretary under section 1116(d), and such State disputes such disallowance, the amount of the Federal payment in controversy shall, at the option of the State, be retained by such State or recovered by the Secretary pending a final determination with respect to such payment amount. If such final determination is to the effect that any amount was properly disallowed, and the State chose to retain payment of the amount in controversy, the Secretary shall offset, from any subsequent payments made to such State under this title, an amount equal to the proper amount of the disallowance plus interest on such amount disallowed for the period beginning on the date such amount was disallowed and ending on the date of such final determination at a rate (determined by the Secretary) based on the average of the bond equivalent of the weekly 90-day treasury bill auction rates during such period.

"(B) EXCEPTION.—For purposes of this title only, for Alaska, the State percentage is that percentage which bears the same ratio to 45 percent as the square of the adjusted per capita income of such State bears to the square of the per capita income of the continental United States. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the adjusted per capita income for Alaska shall be determined by dividing the State's most recent 3-year average per capita by the input cost index for such State (as determined in section 2121(d)(4)).

"(3) LIMITATION ON RANGE.—In no case shall the Federal medical assistance percentage be—

"(iii) from a broad-based health care related tax, if there is in effect a hold harmless provision (described in paragraph (4)) with respect to the tax.

"(B) REDUCTION IN ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENDITURES.—Notwithstanding the previous provisions of this section, for purposes of determining the amount to be paid to a State under this section for all quarters in a Federal fiscal year (beginning with fiscal year 1996), the total amount expended during the fiscal year for administrative expenditures under the medicaid plan (as determined without regard to this subsection) shall be reduced by the sum of any revenues received by the State (or by a unit of local government in the State) during such quarters from donations described in paragraph (2)(C), to the extent the amount of such donations exceeds 10 percent of the amounts expended under the medicaid plan approved under this title during the fiscal year for purposes described in subsection (a)(3).

"(2) PROVIDER-RELATED DONATIONS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'provider-related donation' means any donation or other voluntary payment (whether in cash or in kind) made (directly or indirectly) to a State or unit of local government by—

"(i) a health care provider (as defined in paragraph (5)(B));

"(ii) an entity related to a health care provider (as defined in paragraph (5)(C)); or

"(iii) an entity providing goods or services under the State plan for which payment is made to the State under subsection (a)(3).

"(B) BONA FIDE PROVIDER-RELATED DONATIONS.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(A)(i)(I), the term 'bona fide provider-related donation' means a provider-related donation that has no direct or indirect relationship (as determined by the Secretary) to payments made under this title to that provider, to providers furnishing the same class of items and services as that provider, or to any related entity, as established by the State to the satisfaction of the Secretary. The Secretary may by regulation specify types of provider-related donations described in the previous sentence that will be considered to be bona fide provider-related donations.

"(C) DONATIONS DESCRIBED.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(A)(i)(II), donations described in this subparagraph are funds expended by a hospital, clinic, or similar entity for the direct cost (including costs of training and of preparing and distributing outreach materials) of State or local agency personnel who are stationed at the hospital, clinic, or entity to determine the eligibility of individuals for medical assistance under a medicaid plan approved under this title and to provide outreach services to eligible or potentially ellgible individuals.

"(3) HEALTH CARE RELATED TAXES.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'health care related tax' means a tax (as defined in paragraph (5)(F)) that—

"(i) is related to health care items or services, or to the provision of, the authority to provide, or payment for, such items or services; or

"(ii) is not limited to such items or services but provides for treatment of individuals or entities that are providing or paying for such items or services that is different from the treatment provided to other individuals or entities.

In applying clause (i), a tax is considered to relate to health care items or services if at least 85 percent of the burden of such tax falls on health care providers.

"(B) BROAD-BASED HEALTH CARE RELATED TAX.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'broad-based health care related tax' means a health care related tax which is imposed with respect to a class of health care items or services (as described in paragraph (5)(A)) or with respect to providers of such items or services and which, except as provided in subparagraphs (D) and (E)—

"(i) is imposed at least with respect to all items or services in the class furnished by all non-Federal, nonpublic providers in the State (or, in the case of a tax imposed by a unit of local government, the area over which the unit has jurisdiction) or is imposed with respect to all non-Federal, nonpublic providers in the class; and

"(ii) is imposed uniformly (in accordance with subparagraph (C)).

"(C) UNIFORM IMPOSITION OF TAX.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—Subject to clause (ii), for purposes of subparagraph (B)(ii), a tax is considered to be imposed uniformly if—

"(I) in the case of a tax consisting of a licensing fee or similar tax on a class of health care items or services (or providers of such items or services), the amount of the tax imposed is the same for every provider providing items or services within the class:

"(II) in the case of a tax consisting of a licensing fee or similar tax imposed on a class of health care items or services (or providers of such services) on the basis of the number of beds (licensed or otherwise) of the provider, or the number of patient days or other unit of service, the amount of the tax is the same for each bed, or each unit of service, of each provider of such items or services in the class:

"(III) in the case of a tax based on revenues or receipts with respect to a class of items or services (or providers of items or services) the tax is imposed at a uniform rate for all items and services (or providers of such items of services) in the class on all the gross revenues or receipts, or net operating revenues, relating to the provision of all such items or services (or all such providers) in the State (or, in the case of a tax imposed by a unit of local government within the State, in the area over which the unit has jurisdiction); or

"(IV) in the case of any other tax, the State establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the tax is imposed uniformly.

"(ii) DETERMINATION OF NONUNIFORMITY.—Subject to subparagraphs (D) and (E), a tax imposed with respect to a class of health care items and services is not considered to be imposed uniformly if the tax provides for any credits, exclusions, or deductions which have as their purpose or effect the return to providers of all or a portion of the tax paid in a manner that is inconsistent with subclauses (I) and (II) of subparagraph (E)(ii) or provides for a hold harmless provision described in paragraph (4).

"(D) EXCEPTIONS TO NONUNIFORMITY DETERMINATIONS.—A tax imposed with respect to a class of health care items and services is considered to be imposed uniformly—

"(i) notwithstanding that the tax is not imposed with respect to items or services (or the providers thereof) for which payment is made under a medicaid plan approved under this title or title XVIII; or

"(ii) in the case of a tax described in subparagraph (C)(i)(III), notwithstanding that the tax provides for exclusion (in whole or in part) of revenues or receipts from a medicaid plan approved under this title or title XVIII.

"(E) WAIVER APPLICATION FOR TREATMENTS AS BROAD-BASED TAX.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—A State may submit an application to the Secretary requesting that the Secretary treat a tax as a broad-based health care related tax, notwithstanding that the tax does not apply to all health care items or services in class (or all providers of such items and services), provides for a credit, deduction, or exclusion, is not applied uniformly, or otherwise does not meet the requirements of subparagraph (B) or (C). Permissible waivers may include exemptions for rural or sole-community providers.

"(ii) WAIVER APPROVAL REQUIREMENTS.—The Secretary shall approve such an application if the State establishes to the satisfaction of the Secretary that—

"(I) the net impact of the tax and associated expenditures under the medicaid plan approved under this title as proposed by the State is generally redistributive in nature; and

"(II) the amount of the tax is not directly correlated to payments under such plan for items or services with respect to which the tax is imposed.

"(iii) DETERMINATION OF REDISTRIBUTIVE NATURE.—In determining whether a tax for which a waiver is sought is generally redistributive in nature, the Secretary shall, if requested by the State—

"(I) compare the tax to a tax that meets any of the uniformity requirements of subparagraphs (C) or (D); and

"(II) consider in the aggregate all classes (or providers) of health care items or services that are subject to the same tax.

"(iv) TERM OF WAIVER.—A tax for which the Secretary has approved an application for waiver shall not be subject to the requirements of a further waiver application solely because a change in the rate of tax.

"(F) TREATMENT OF MANAGED CARE PREMIUMS.—No tax on the payment or receipt of premiums or similar periodic payments to health maintenance organizations or health care insurers shall be treated as a health care related tax unless and until the Secretary, after consultation with the States pursuant to section 5(c) of the Medicaid Voluntary Contribution and Provider-Specific Tax Amendments of 1991, adopts a final regulation specifically subjecting such taxes, or any of such taxes, to the provisions of this subsection.

"(4) HOLD HARMLESS DETERMINATION.—For purposes of paragraph (1)(A)(iii), there is in effect a hold harmless provision with respect to a broad-based health care related tax imposed with respect to a class of items or services if the Secretary determines that any of the following applies:

"(A) The State or other unit of government imposing the tax provides (directly or indirectly) for a payment (other than under a medicaid plan approved under this title) to taxpayers and the amount of such payment is positively correlated either to the amount of such tax or to the difference between the amount of the tax and the amount of payment under the medicaid plan.

"(B) All or any portion of the payment made under this title to the taxpayer varies based only upon the amount of the total tax paid.

"(C) The State or other unit of government imposing the tax provides (directly or indirectly) for any payment, offset, or waiver that guarantees to hold taxpayers harmless for any portion of the costs of the tax.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, no hold harmless shall be found to be in effect with respect to a tax enacted or extended prior to October 1, 1995, because of the existence in the State of a program of financial aid or of tax credits for recipients of health care items or services from providers that are subject to an otherwise valid health care related tax.

"(a) IN GENERAL.—Each medicaid plan shall provide for a State medicaid fraud control unit that effectively carries out the functions and requirements described in such subsection, unless the State demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Secretary that the effective operation of such a unit in the State would not be cost-effective because minimal fraud exists in connection with the provision of covered services to eligible individuals under the plan, and that beneficiaries under the plan will be protected from abuse and neglect in connection with the provision of medical assistance under the plan without the existence of such a unit.

"(b) UNITS DESCRIBED.—For purposes of this section, the term 'State medicaid fraud control unit' means a single identifiable entity of the State government which meets the following requirements:

"(4) REVIEW OF COMPLAINTS.—The entity has procedures for reviewing complaints of the abuse and neglect of patients of health care facilities which receive payments under the medicaid plan approved under this title, and, where appropriate, for acting upon such complaints under the criminal laws of the State or for referring them to other State agencies for action.

"(5) OVERPAYMENTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The entity provides for the collection, or referral for collection to a single State agency, of overpayments that are made under the medicaid plan to health care providers and that are discovered by the entity in carrying out its activities.

"(B) TREATMENT OF CERTAIN OVERPAYMENTS.—If an overpayment is the direct result of the failure of the provider (or the provider's billing agent) to adhere to a change in the State's billing instructions, the entity may recover the overpayment only if the entity demonstrates that the provider (or the provider's billing agent) received reasonable written or electronic notice of the change in the billing instructions before the submission of the claims on which the overpayment is based.

"(6) PERSONNEL.—The entity employs such auditors, attorneys, investigators, and other necessary personnel and is organized in such a manner as is necessary to promote the effective and efficient conduct of the entity's activities.

"SEC. 2135. RECOVERIES FROM THIRD PARTIES AND OTHERS.

"(a) THIRD PARTY LIABILITY.—Each medicaid plan shall provide for reasonable steps—

"(1) to ascertain the legal liability of third parties to pay for care and services available under the plan, including the collection of sufficient information to enable States to pursue claims against third parties; and

"(2) to seek reimbursement for medical assistance provided to the extent legal liability is established if the amount expected to be recovered exceeds the costs of the recovery.

"(b) BENEFICIARY PROTECTION.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Each medicaid plan shall provide that in the case of a person furnishing services under the plan for which a third party may be liable for payment—

"(A) the person may not seek to collect from the individual (or financially responsible relative) payment of an amount for the service more than could be collected under the plan in the absence of such third party liability; and

"(B) may not refuse to furnish services to such an individual because of a third party's potential liability for payment for the service.

"(2) PENALTY.—A medicaid plan may provide for a reduction of any payment amount otherwise due with respect to a person who furnishes services under the plan in an amount equal to up to 3 times the amount of any payment sought to be collected by that person in violation of paragraph (1)(A).

"(c) GENERAL LIABILITY.—The State shall prohibit any health insurer, including a group health plan as defined in section 607 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, a service benefit plan, or a health maintenance organization, in enrolling an individual or in making any payments for benefits to the individual or on the individual's behalf, from taking into account that the individual is eligible for or is provided medical assistance under a medicaid plan for any State.

"(d) ACQUISITION OF RIGHTS OF BENEFICIARIES.—To the extent that payment has been made under a medicaid plan in any case where a third party has a legal liability to make payment for such assistance, the State shall have in effect laws under which, to the extent that payment has been made under the plan for health care items or services furnished to an individual, the State is considered to have acquired the rights of such individual to payment by any other party for such health care items or services.

"(e) ASSIGNMENT OF MEDICAL SUPPORT RIGHTS.—The medicaid plan shall provide for mandatory assignment of rights of payment for medical support and other medical care owed to recipients in accordance with section 2136.

"(f) REQUIRED LAWS RELATING TO MEDICAL CHILD SUPPORT.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.— Each State with a medicaid plan shall have in effect the following laws:

"(A) A law that prohibits an insurer from denying enrollment of a child under the health coverage of the child's parent on the ground that—

"(i) the child was born out of wedlock;

"(ii) the child is not claimed as a dependent on the parent's Federal income tax return; or

"(iii) the child does not reside with the parent or in the insurer's service area.

"(B) In any case in which a parent is required by a court or administrative order to provide health coverage for a child and the parent is eligible for family health coverage through an insurer, a law that requires such insurer—

"(i) to permit such parent to enroll under such family coverage any such child who is otherwise eligible for such coverage (without regard to any enrollment season restrictions);

"(ii) if such a parent is enrolled but fails to make application to obtain coverage of such child, to enroll such child under such family coverage upon application by the child's other parent or by the State agency administering the program under this title or part D of title IV; and

"(iii) not to disenroll, or eliminate coverage of, such a child unless the insurer is provided satisfactory written evidence that—

"(I) such court or administrative order is no longer in effect, or

"(II) the child is or will be enrolled in comparable health coverage through another insurer which will take effect not later than the effective date of such disenrollment.

"(C) In any case in which a parent is required by a court or administrative order to provide health coverage for a child and the parent is eligible for family health coverage through an employer doing business in the State, a law that requires such employer—

"(i) to permit such parent to enroll under such family coverage any such child who is otherwise eligible for such coverage (without regard to any enrollment season restrictions);

"(ii) if such a parent is enrolled but fails to make application to obtain coverage of such child, to enroll such child under such family coverage upon application by the child's other parent or by the State agency administering the program under this title or part D of title IV; and

"(iii) not to disenroll, or eliminate coverage of, any such child unless—

"(I) the employer is provided satisfactory written evidence that such court or administrative order is no longer in effect, or the child is or will be enrolled in comparable health coverage which will take effect not later than the effective date of such disenrollment, or

"(II) the employer has eliminated family health coverage for all of its employees; and

"(iv) to withhold from such employee's compensation the employee's share (if any) of premiums for health coverage (except that the amount so withheld may not exceed the maximum amount permitted to be withheld under section 303(b) of the Consumer Credit Protection Act), and to pay such share of premiums to the insurer, except that the Secretary may provide by regulation for appropriate circumstances under which an employer may withhold less than such employee's share of such premiums.

"(D) A law that prohibits an insurer from imposing requirements on a State agency, which has been assigned the rights of an individual eligible for medical assistance under a medicaid plan approved under this title and covered for health benefits from the insurer, that are different from requirements applicable to an agent or assignee of any other individual so covered.

"(E) A law that requires an insurer, in any case in which a child has health coverage through the insurer of a noncustodial parent—

"(i) to provide such information to the custodial parent as may be necessary for the child to obtain benefits through such coverage;

"(ii) to permit the custodial parent (or provider, with the custodial parent's approval) to submit claims for covered services without the approval of the noncustodial parent; and

"(iii) to make payment on claims submitted in accordance with clause (ii) directly to such custodial parent, the provider, or the State agency.

"(F) A law that permits the State agency under the medicaid plan approved under this title to garnish the wages, salary, or other employment income of, and requires withholding amounts from State tax refunds to, any person who—

"(i) is required by court or administrative order to provide coverage of the costs of health services to a child who is eligible for medical assistance under a medicaid plan approved under this title;

"(ii) has received payment from a third party for the costs of such services to such child; but

"(iii) has not used such payments to reimburse, as appropriate, either the other parent or guardian of such child or the provider of such services, to the extent necessary to reimburse the State agency for expenditures for such costs under its plan under this title, but any claims for current or past-due child support shall take priority over any such claims for the costs of such services.

"(2) DEFINITION.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'insurer' includes a group health plan, as defined in section 607(1) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, a health maintenance organization, and an entity offering a service benefit plan.

"(g) ESTATE RECOVERIES AND LIENS PERMITTED.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), a State may take such actions as it considers appropriate to adjust or recover from the individual or the individual's estate any amounts paid as medical assistance to or on behalf of the individual under the medicaid plan, including through the imposition of liens against the property or estate of the individual.

"(2) NO LIEN ON HOMES OR FAMILY FARMS.—For purposes of paragraph (1), a State may not impose a lien on the principal residence (within the meaning of section 1034 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) of moderate value or the family farm owned by the individual as a condition of the spouse of the individual receiving nursing facility or other long term care benefits under its medicaid plan.

"SEC. 2136. ASSIGNMENT OF RIGHTS OF PAYMENT.

"(a) IN GENERAL.—For the purpose of assisting in the collection of medical support payments and other payments for medical care owed to recipients of medical assistance under the medicaid plan, each medicaid plan shall—

"(1) provide that, as a condition of eligibility for medical assistance under the plan to an individual who has the legal capacity to execute an assignment for himself, the individual is required—

"(A) to assign the State any rights, of the individual or of any other person who is eligible for medical assistance under the plan and on whose behalf the individual has the legal authority to execute an assignment of such rights, to support (specified as support for the purpose of medical care by a court or administrative order) and to payment for medical care from any third party,

"(B) to cooperate with the State (i) in establishing the paternity of such person (referred to in subparagraph (A)) if the person is a child born out of wedlock, and (ii) in obtaining support and payments (described in subparagraph (A)) for himself and for such person, unless (in either case) the individual is a pregnant woman or the individual is found to have good cause for refusing to cooperate as determined by the State, and

"(C) to cooperate with the State in identifying, and providing information to assist the State in pursuing, any third party who may be liable to pay for care and services available under the plan, unless such individual has good cause for refusing to cooperate as determined by the State; and

"(2) provide for entering into cooperative arrangements, including financial arrangements, with any appropriate agency of any State (including, with respect to the enforcement and collection of rights of payment for medical care by or through a parent, with a State's agency established or designated under section 454(3)) and with appropriate courts and law enforcement officials, to assist the agency or agencies administering the plan with respect to—

"(A) the enforcement and collection of rights to support or payment assigned under this section, and

"(B) any other matters of common concern.

"(b) USE OF AMOUNTS COLLECTED.—Such part of any amount collected by the State under an assignment made under the provisions of this section shall be retained by the State as is necessary to reimburse it for medical assistance payments made on behalf of an individual with respect to whom such assignment was executed (with appropriate reimbursement of the Federal Government to the extent of its participation in the financing of such medical assistance), and the remainder of such amount collected shall be paid to such individual.

"(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, subsection (b) shall be effective on and after January 1, 1996.

"SEC. 2137. REQUIREMENTS FOR NURSING FACILITIES.

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), the provisions of section 1919, as in effect on the day after the date of the enactment of this title shall apply to nursing facilities which furnish services under the State plan.

"(2) WAIVER FOR STATES WITH STRICTER REQUIREMENTS.—

"(A) AUTHORITY TO SEEK WAIVER.—Any State with State law requirements for nursing facilities that, as determined by the Secretary—

"(i) are equivalent to or stricter than the requirements imposed under paragraph (1); and

"(ii) contain State oversight and enforcement authority over nursing facilities, including penalty provisions, that are equivalent to or stricter than such oversight and enforcement authority in section 1919, as so in effect, may apply to the Secretary for a waiver of the requirements imposed under paragraph (1).

"(B) 120-DAY APPROVAL PERIOD.—The Secretary shall approve or deny an application submitted under subparagraph (A) not later than 120 days after the date the application is submitted.

"(C) APPROVAL AFTER PUBLIC COMMENT.—The Secretary shall approve or deny an application for a waiver under subparagraph (A) after providing for public comment on such application during the 120-day approval period.

"(D) NO WAIVER OF ENFORCEMENT.—A State granted a waiver under subparagraph (A) shall be subject to—

"(i) the penalty described in subsection (b);

"(ii) suspension or termination, as determined by the Secretary, of the waiver granted under subparagraph (A); and

"(iii) any other authority available to the Secretary to enforce the requirements of section 1919, as so in effect.

"(b) PENALTY FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.—For any fiscal year, the Secretary shall withhold up to but not more than 2 percent of the State outlay allotment under section 2121(c) for such fiscal year if the Secretary makes a determination that a State medicaid plan has failed to comply with a provision of section 1919, as so in effect, or any State law requirements applicable to such plan under a waiver granted under subsection (a)(2)(A).

"SEC. 2138. OTHER PROVISIONS PROMOTING PROGRAM INTEGRITY.

"(a) PUBLIC ACCESS TO SURVEY RESULTS.—Each medicaid plan shall provide that upon completion of a survey of any health care facility or organization by a State agency to carry out the plan, the agency shall make public in readily available form and place the pertinent findings of the survey relating to the compliance of the facility or organization with requirements of law.

"(b) RECORD KEEPING.—Each medicaid plan shall provide for agreements with persons or institutions providing services under the plan under which the person or institution agrees—

"(1) to keep such records, including ledgers, books, and original evidence of costs, as are necessary to fully disclose the extent of the services provided to individuals receiving assistance under the plan; and

"(2) to furnish the State agency with such information regarding any payments claimed by such person or institution for providing services under the plan, as the State agency may from time to time request.

"PART E—ESTABLISHMENT AND AMENDMENT OF MEDICAID PLANS

"SEC. 2151. SUBMITTAL AND APPROVAL OF MEDICAID PLANS.

"(a) SUBMITTAL.—As a condition of receiving funding under part C, each State shall submit to the Secretary a medicaid plan that meets the applicable requirements of this title.

"(b) APPROVAL.—Except as the Secretary may provide under section 2153, a medicaid plan submitted under subsection (a)—

"(1) shall be approved for purposes of this title; and

"(2) shall be effective beginning with a calendar quarter that is specified in the plan, but in no case earlier than the first calendar quarter that begins at least 60 days after the date the plan is submitted.

"SEC. 2152. SUBMITTAL AND APPROVAL OF PLAN AMENDMENTS.

"(a) SUBMITTAL OF AMENDMENTS.—A State may amend, in whole or in part, its medicaid plan at any time through transmittal of a plan amendment under this section.

"(b) APPROVAL.—Except as the Secretary may provide under section 2153, an amendment to a medicaid plan submitted under subsection (a)—

"(1) shall be approved for purposes of this title; and

"(2) shall be effective as provided in subsection (c).

"(c) EFFECTIVE DATES FOR AMENDMENTS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to the succeeding provisions of this subsection, an amendment to medicaid plan shall take effect on one or more effective dates specified in the amendment.

"(2) AMENDMENTS RELATING TO ELIGIBILITY OR BENEFITS.—Except as provided in paragraph (4):

"(A) NOTICE REQUIREMENT.—Any plan amendment that eliminates or restricts eligibility or benefits under the plan may not take effect unless the State certifies that it has provided prior or contemporaneous public notice of the change, in a form and manner provided under applicable State law.

"(B) TIMELY TRANSMITTAL.—Any plan amendment that eliminates or restricts eligibility or benefits under the plan shall not be effective for longer than a 60-day period unless the amendment has been transmitted to the Secretary before the end of such period.

"(3) OTHER AMENDMENTS.—Subject to paragraph (4), any plan amendment that is not described in paragraph (2) that becomes effective in a State fiscal year may not remain in effect after the end of such fiscal year (or, if later, the end of the 90-day period on which it becomes effective) unless the amendment has been transmitted to the Secretary.

"(4) EXCEPTION.—The requirements of paragraphs (2) and (3) shall not apply to a plan amendment that is submitted on a timely basis pursuant to a court order or an order of the Secretary.

"SEC. 2153. SANCTIONS FOR SUBSTANTIAL NONCOMPLIANCE.

"(a) PROMPT REVIEW OF PLAN SUBMITTALS.—The Secretary shall promptly review medicaid plans and plan amendments submitted under this part to determine if they substantially comply with the requirements of this title.

"(b) DETERMINATIONS OF SUBSTANTIAL NONCOMPLIANCE.—

"(1) AT TIME OF PLAN OR AMENDMENT SUBMITTAL.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary, during the 30-day period beginning on the date of submittal of a medicaid plan or plan amendment—

"(i) determines that the plan or amendment substantially violates (within the meaning of subsection (c)) a requirement of this title; and

"(ii) provides written notice of such determination to the State, the Secretary shall issue an order specifying that the plan or amendment, insofar as it is in substantial violation of such a requirement, shall not be effective, except as provided in subsection (c), beginning at the end of a period of not less than 30 days (or 120 days in the case of the initial submission of the medicaid plan) specified in the order beginning on the date of the notice of the determination.

"(B) EXTENSION OF TIME PERIODS.—The time periods specified in subparagraph (A) may be extended by written agreement of the Secretary and the State involved.

"(2) VIOLATIONS IN ADMINISTRATION OF PLAN.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary determines, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing for the State, that in the administration of a medicaid plan there is a substantial violation of a requirement of this title, the Secretary shall provide the State with written notice of the determination and with an order to remedy such violation. Such an order shall become effective prospectively, as specified in the order, after the date of receipt of such written notice. Such an order may include the withholding of funds, consistent with subsection (f), for parts of the medicaid plan affected by such violation, until the Secretary is satisfied that the violation has been corrected.

"(B) EFFECTIVENESS.—If the Secretary issues an order under paragraph (1), the order shall become effective, except as provided in subsection (c), beginning at the end of a period (of not less than 30 days) specified in the order beginning on the date of the notice of the determination to the State.

"(C) TIMELINESS OF DETERMINATIONS RELATING TO REPORT-BASED COMPLIANCE.—The Secretary shall make determinations under this paragraph respecting violations relating to information contained in an annual report under section 2102, an independent evaluation under section 2103, or an audit report under section 2131 not later than 30 days after the date of transmittal of the report or evaluation to the Secretary.

"(3) CONSULTATION WITH STATE.—Before making a determination adverse to a State under this section, the Secretary shall (within any time periods provided under this section)—

"(A) reasonably consult with the State involved;

"(B) offer the State a reasonable opportunity to clarify the submission and submit further information to substantiate compliance with the requirements of this title; and

"(C) reasonably consider any such clarifications and information submitted.

"(4) JUSTIFICATION OF ANY INCONSISTENCIES IN DETERMINATIONS.—If the Secretary makes a determination under this section that is, in whole or in part, inconsistent with any previous determination issued by the Secretary under this title, the Secretary shall include in the determination a detailed explanation and justification for any such difference.

"(5) SUBSTANTIAL VIOLATION DEFINED.—For purposes of this title, a medicaid plan (or amendment to such a plan) or the administration of the medicaid plan is considered to 'substantially violate' a requirement of this title if a provision of the plan or amendment (or an omission from the plan or amendment) or the administration of the plan—

"(A) is material and substantial in nature and effect; and

"(B) is inconsistent with an express requirement of this title.

A failure to meet a strategic objective or performance goal (as described in section 2101) shall not be considered to substantially violate a requirement of this title.

"(c) STATE RESPONSE TO ORDERS.—

"(1) STATE RESPONSE BY REVISING PLAN.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Insofar as an order under subsection (b)(1) relates to a substantial violation by a medicaid plan or plan amendment, a State may respond (before the date the order becomes effective) to such an order by submitting a written revision of the plan or plan amendment to substantially comply with the requirements of this part.

"(B) REVIEW OF REVISION.—In the case of submission of such a revision, the Secretary shall promptly review the submission and shall withhold any action on the order during the period of such review.

"(C) SECRETARIAL RESPONSE.—The revision shall be considered to have corrected the deficiency (and the order rescinded insofar as it relates to such deficiency) unless the Secretary determines and notifies the State in writing, within 15 days after the date the Secretary receives the revision, that the plan or amendment, as proposed to be revised, still substantially violates a requirement of this title. In such case the State may respond by seeking reconsideration or a hearing under paragraph (2).

"(D) REVISION RETROACTIVE.—If the revision provides for substantial compliance, the revision may be treated, at the option of the State, as being effective either as of the effective date of the provision to which it relates or such later date as the State and Secretary may agree.

"(2) STATE RESPONSE BY SEEKING RECONSIDERATION OR AN ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING.—A State may respond to an order under subsection (b) by filing a request with the Secretary for—

"(A) a reconsideration of the determination, pursuant to subsection (d)(1); or

"(B) a review of the determination through an administrative hearing, pursuant to subsection (d)(2).

In such case, the order shall not take effect before the completion of the reconsideration or hearing.

"(3) STATE RESPONSE BY CORRECTIVE ACTION PLAN.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an order described in subsection (b)(2) that relates to a substantial violation in the administration of the medicaid plan, a State may respond to such an order by submitting a corrective action plan with the Secretary to correct deficiencies in the administration of the plan which are the subject of the order.

"(B) REVIEW OF CORRECTIVE ACTION PLAN.—In such case, the Secretary shall withhold any action on the order for a period (not to exceed 30 days) during which the Secretary reviews the corrective action plan.

"(C) SECRETARIAL RESPONSE.—The corrective action plan shall be considered to have corrected the deficiency (and the order rescinded insofar as it relates to such deficiency) unless the Secretary determines and notifies the State in writing, within 15 days after the date the Secretary receives the corrective action plan, that the State's administration of the medicaid plan, as proposed to be corrected in the plan, will still substantially violate a requirement of this title. In such case the State may respond by seeking reconsideration or a hearing under paragraph (2).

"(4) STATE RESPONSE BY WITHDRAWAL OF PLAN AMENDMENT; FAILURE TO RESPOND.—Insofar as an order relates to a substantial violation in a plan amendment submitted, a State may respond to such an order by withdrawing the plan amendment and the medicaid plan shall be treated as though the amendment had not been made.

"(d) ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW AND HEARING.—

"(1) RECONSIDERATION.—Within 30 days after the date of receipt of a request under subsection (b)(2)(A), the Secretary shall notify the State of the time and place at which a hearing will be held for the purpose of reconsidering the Secretary's determination. The hearing shall be held not less than 20 days nor more than 60 days after the date notice of the hearing is furnished to the State, unless the Secretary and the State agree in writing to holding the hearing at another time. The Secretary shall affirm, modify, or reverse the original determination within 60 days of the conclusion of the hearing.

"(2) ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING.—Within 30 days after the date of receipt of a request under subsection (b)(2)(B), an administrative law judge shall schedule a hearing for the purpose of reviewing the Secretary's determination. The hearing shall be held not less than 20 days nor more than 60 days after the date notice of the hearing is furnished to the State, unless the Secretary and the State agree in writing to holding the hearing at another time. The administrative law judge shall affirm, modify, or reverse the determination within 60 days of the conclusion of the hearing.

"(e) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—A State which is dissatisfied with a final determination made by the Secretary under subsection (d)(1) or a final determination of an administrative law judge under subsection (d)(2) may, within 60 days after it has been notified of such determination, file with the United States court of appeals for the circuit in which the State is located a petition for review of such determination. A copy of the petition shall be forthwith transmitted by the clerk of the court to the Secretary and, in the case of a determination under subsection (d)(2), to the administrative law judge involved. The Secretary (or judge involved) thereupon shall file in the court the record of the proceedings on which the final determination was based, as provided in section 2112 of title 28, United States Code.

"(2) STANDARD FOR REVIEW.—The findings of fact by the Secretary or administrative law judge, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be conclusive, but the court, for good cause shown, may remand the case to the Secretary or judge to take further evidence, and the Secretary or judge may thereupon make new or modified findings of fact and may modify a previous determination, and shall certify to the court the transcript and record of the further proceedings. Such new or modified findings of fact shall likewise be conclusive if supported by substantial evidence.

"(3) JURISDICTION OF APPELLATE COURT.—The court shall have jurisdiction to affirm the action of the Secretary or judge or to set it aside, in whole or in part. The judgment of the court shall be subject to review by the Supreme Court of the United States upon certiorari or certification as provided in section 1254 of title 28, United States Code.

"(f) WITHHOLDING OF FUNDS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Any order under this section relating to the withholding of funds shall be effective not earlier than the effective date of the order and shall only relate to the portions of a medicaid plan or administration thereof which substantially violate a requirement of this title. In the case of a failure to meet a set-aside requirement under section 2112, any withholding shall only apply to the extent of such failure.

"(2) SUSPENSION OF WITHHOLDING.—The Secretary may suspend withholding of funds under paragraph (1) during the period reconsideration or administrative and judicial review is pending under subsection (d) or (e).

"(3) RESTORATION OF FUNDS.—Any funds withheld under this subsection under an order shall be immediately restored to a State—

"(A) to the extent and at the time the order is—

"(i) modified or withdrawn by the Secretary upon reconsideration,

"(ii) modified or reversed by an administrative law judge, or

"(iii) set aside (in whole or in part) by an appellate court; or

"(B) when the Secretary determines that the deficiency which was the basis for the order is corrected;

"(C) when the Secretary determines that violation which was the basis for the order is resolved or the amendment which was the basis for the order is withdrawn; or

"(D) at any time upon the initiative of the Secretary.

"(a) NEGOTIATED AGREEMENT AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION.—

"(1) NEGOTIATIONS.—Nothing in this part shall be construed as preventing the Secretary and a State from at any time negotiating a satisfactory resolution to any dispute concerning the approval of a medicaid plan (or amendments to a medicaid plan) or the compliance of a medicaid plan (including its administration) with requirements of this title.

"(2) COOPERATION.—The Secretary shall act in a cooperative manner with the States in carrying out this title. In the event of a dispute between a State and the Secretary, the Secretary shall, whenever practicable, engage in informal dispute resolution activities in lieu of formal enforcement or sanctions under section 2153.

"(b) LIMITATIONS ON DELEGATION OF DECISION-MAKING AUTHORITY.—The Secretary may not delegate (other than to the Administrator of the Health Care Financing Administration) the authority to make determinations or reconsiderations respecting the approval of medicaid plans (or amendments to such plans) or the compliance of a medicaid plan (including its administration) with requirements of this title. Such Administrator may not further delegate such authority to any individual, including any regional official of such Administration.

"(c) REQUIRING FORMAL RULEMAKING FOR CHANGES IN SECRETARIAL ADMINISTRATION.—The Secretary shall carry out the administration of the program under this title only through a prospective formal rulemaking process, including issuing notices of proposed rule making, publishing proposed rules or modifications to rules in the Federal Register, and soliciting public comment.

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Upon request of the manufacturer of a covered outpatient drug, the Secretary shall limit, in accordance with subparagraph (B), the amount of the rebate under this subsection with respect to a dosage form and strength of such drug if the majority of the estimated number of units of such dosage form and strength that are subject to rebates under this section were dispensed to inpatients of nursing facilities.

"(B) AMOUNT OF REBATE.—In the case of a covered outpatient drug subject to subparagraph (A), the amount of the rebate specified in this subsection for a rebate period, with respect to each dosage form and strength of such drug, shall not exceed the amount paid under the medicaid plan with respect to such dosage form and strength of the drug in the rebate period (without consideration of any dispensing fees paid).

"(5) SUPPLEMENTAL REBATES PROHIBITED.—No rebates shall be required to be paid by manufacturers with respect to covered outpatient drugs furnished to individuals in any State that provides for the collection of such rebates in excess of the rebate amount payable under this section.

"(d) LIMITATIONS ON COVERAGE OF DRUGS.—

"(1) PERMISSIBLE RESTRICTIONS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—A State may subject to prior authorization any covered outpatient drug. Any such prior authorization program shall comply with the requirements of paragraph (5).

"(B) ADDITIONAL RESTRICTIONS.—A State may exclude or otherwise restrict coverage of a covered outpatient drug if—

"(i) the drug is contained in the list referred to in paragraph (2);

"(ii) the drug is subject to such restrictions pursuant to an agreement between a manufacturer and a State authorized by the Secretary under subsection (a)(1) or in effect pursuant to subsection (a)(4); or

"(iii) the State has excluded coverage of the drug from its formulary established in accordance with paragraph (4).

"(2) LIST OF DRUGS SUBJECT TO RESTRICTION.—The following drugs or classes of drugs, or their medical uses, may be excluded from coverage or otherwise restricted:

"(A) Agents when used for anorexia, weight loss, or weight gain.

"(4) REQUIREMENTS FOR FORMULARIES.—A State may establish a formulary if the formulary meets the following requirements:

"(A) The formulary is developed by a committee consisting of physicians, pharmacists, and other appropriate individuals appointed by the Governor of the State (or, at the option of the State, the State's drug use review board established under subsection (f)(3)).

"(B) Except as provided in subparagraph (C), the formulary includes the covered outpatient drugs of any manufacturer which has entered into and complies with an agreement under subsection (a) (other than any drug excluded from coverage or otherwise restricted under paragraph (2)).

"(C) A covered outpatient drug may be excluded with respect to the treatment of a specific disease or condition for an identified population (if any) only if, based on the drug's labeling (or, in the case of a drug the prescribed use of which is not approved under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act but is a medically accepted indication, based on information from the appropriate compendia described in subsection (j)(6)), the excluded drug does not have a significant, clinically meaningful therapeutic advantage in terms of safety, effectiveness, or clinical outcome of such treatment for such population over other drugs included in the formulary and there is a written explanation (available to the public) of the basis for the exclusion.

"(D) The medicaid plan permits coverage of a drug excluded from the formulary (other than any drug excluded from coverage or otherwise restricted under paragraph (2)) pursuant to a prior authorization program that is consistent with paragraph (5).

"(E) The formulary meets such other requirements as the Secretary may impose in order to achieve program savings consistent with protecting the health of program beneficiaries.

A prior authorization program established by a State under paragraph (5) is not a formulary subject to the requirements of this paragraph.

"(5) REQUIREMENTS OF PRIOR AUTHORIZATION PROGRAMS.—A medicaid plan approved under this title may require, as a condition of coverage or payment for a covered outpatient drug for which Federal financial participation is available in accordance with this section, with respect to drugs dispensed on or after July 1, 1991, the approval of the drug before its dispensing for any medically accepted indication (as defined in subsection (j)(6)) only if the system providing for such approval—

"(6) OTHER PERMISSIBLE RESTRICTIONS.—A State may impose limitations, with respect to all such drugs in a therapeutic class, on the minimum or maximum quantities per prescription or on the number of refills, if such limitations are necessary to discourage waste, and may address instances of fraud or abuse by individuals in any manner authorized under this Act.

"(e) ESTABLISHMENT OF UPPER PAYMENT LIMITS.—The Health Care Financing Administration shall establish a Federal upper reimbursement limit for each multiple source drug for which the FDA has rated three or more products therapeutically and pharmaceutically equivalent, regardless of whether all such additional formulations are rated as such and shall use only such formulations when determining any such upper limit.

"(f) DRUG USE REVIEW.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—A State participating in the medicaid rebate agreement may provide for a drug use review program to educate physicians and pharmacists to identify and reduce the frequency of patterns of fraud, abuse, gross overuse, or inappropriate or medically unnecessary care, among physicians, pharmacists, and patients, or associated with specific drugs or groups of drugs, as well as potential and actual severe adverse reactions to drugs.

"(2) APPLICATION OF STATE STANDARDS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B), a State with a drug use review program under this subsection shall establish and operate the program under such standards as it may establish.

"(j) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section:

"(1) AVERAGE MANUFACTURER PRICE.—The term 'average manufacturer price' means, with respect to a covered outpatient drug of a manufacturer for a rebate period, the average price paid to the manufacturer for the drug in the United States by wholesalers for drugs distributed to the retail pharmacy class of trade, after deducting customary prompt pay discounts.

drug under such section because the Secretary has determined that the drug is less than effective for some or all conditions of use prescribed, recommended, or suggested in its labeling;

"(B) a biological product, other than a vaccine which—

"(H) Renal dialysis services.

Such term also does not include any such drug or product for which a National Drug Code number is not required by the Food and Drug Administration or a drug or biological used for a medical indication which is not a medically accepted indication. Any drug, biological product, or insulin excluded from the definition of such term as a result of this paragraph shall be treated as a covered outpatient drug for purposes of determining the best price (as defined in subsection (c)(1)(C)) for such drug, biological product, or insulin.

"(F) vocational educational training (not to exceed 12 months with respect to any individual).

"(4) LIMITATION ON VOCATIONAL EDUCATION ACTIVITIES COUNTED AS WORK.—For purposes of determining monthly participation rates under paragraphs (1)(B)(i)(I) and (2)(B)(i) of subsection (b), not more than 25 percent of adults in all families and in 2-parent families determined to be engaged in work in the State for a month may meet the work activity requirement through participation in vocational educational training.

"(d) PENALTIES AGAINST INDIVIDUALS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), if an adult in a family receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part refuses to engage in work required under subsection (c)(1) or (c)(2), a State to which a grant is made under section 403 shall—

"(A) reduce the amount of assistance otherwise payable to the family pro rata (or more, at the option of the State) with respect to any period during a month in which the adult so refuses; or subject to such good cause and other exceptions as the State may establish.

"(B) terminate such assistance,

"(2) EXCEPTION.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a State may not reduce or terminate assistance under the State program based on a refusal of an adult to work if such adult is a single custodial parent caring for a child age 5 or under and has a demonstrated inability (as determined by the State) to obtain needed child care, for one or more of the following reasons:

"(A) Unavailability of appropriate child care within a reasonable distance of the individual's home or work site.

"(B) Unavailability or unsuitability of informal child care by a relative or under other arrangements.

"(C) Unavailability of appropriate and affordable formal child care arrangements.

"(e) NONDISPLACEMENT IN WORK ACTIVITIES.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), an adult in a family receiving assistance under this part may fill a vacant employment position in order to engage in a work activity described in subsection (c)(3).

"(2) NO FILLING OF CERTAIN VACANCIES.—No adult in a work activity described in subsection (c)(3) shall be employed or assigned—

"(A) when any other individual is on layoff from the same or any substantially equivalent job; or

"(B) when the employer has terminated the employment of any regular employee or otherwise caused an involuntary reduction of its workforce in order to fill the vacancy so created with an adult described in paragraph (1).

"(3) NO PREEMPTION.—Nothing in this subsection shall preempt or supersede any provision of State or local law that provides greater protection for employees from displacement.

"(f) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that in complying with this section, each State that operates a program funded under this part is encouraged to assign the highest priority to requiring adults in 2-parent families and adults in single-parent families that include older preschool or school-age children to be engaged in work activities.

"(g) ENCOURAGEMENT TO PROVIDE CHILD CARE SERVICES.—An individual participating in a State community service program may be treated as being engaged in work under subsection (c) if such individual provides child care services to other individuals participating in the community service program in the manner, and for the period of time each week, determined appropriate by the State.

"SEC. 405. REQUIREMENTS AND LIMITATIONS.

"(a) STATE REQUIRED TO ENTER INTO A PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY CONTRACT WITH EACH FAMILY RECEIVING ASSISTANCE.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—Each State to which a grant is made under section 403 shall require each family receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part to enter into—

"(A) a personal responsibility contract (as developed by the State) with the State; or

"(B) a limited benefit plan.

"(2) PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY CONTRACT.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'personal responsibility contract' means a binding contract between the State and each family receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part that—

"(A) outlines the steps each family and the State will take to get the family off of welfare and to become self-sufficient;

"(B) specifies a negotiated time-limited period of eligibility for receipt of assistance that is consistent with unique family circumstances and is based on a reasonable plan to facilitate the transition of the family to self-sufficiency;

"(C) provides that the family will automatically enter into a limited benefit plan if the family is out of compliance with the personal responsibility contract; and

"(D) provides that the contract shall be invalid if the State agency fails to comply with the contract.

"(3) LIMITED BENEFIT PLAN.—For purposes of this subsection, the term 'limited benefit plan' means a plan which provides for a reduced level of assistance and later termination of assistance to a family that has entered into the plan in accordance with a schedule to be determined by the State.

"(4) ASSESSMENT.—The State agency shall provide, through a case manager, an initial and thorough assessment of the skills, prior work experience, and employability of each parent for use in developing and negotiating a personal responsibility contract.

"(5) DISPUTE RESOLUTION.—The State agency described in section 402(a)(7) shall establish a dispute resolution procedure for disputes related to participation in the personal responsibility contract that provides the opportunity for a hearing.

"(b) NO ASSISTANCE FOR MORE THAN 5 YEARS.—

"(1) MINOR CHILD EXCEPTION.—If an individual received assistance under the State program operated under this part as a minor child in a needy family, any period during which such individual's family received assistance shall not be counted for purposes of applying the limitation described in paragraph (1) to an application for assistance under such program by such individual as the head of a household of a needy family with minor children.

"(2) HARDSHIP EXCEPTION.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The State may exempt a family from the application of paragraph (1) by reason of hardship.

"(B) LIMITATION.—The number of families with respect to which an exemption made by a State under subparagraph (A) is in effect for a fiscal year shall not exceed 20 percent of the average monthly number of families to which the State is providing assistance under the program operated under this part.

"(c) DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE FOR 10 YEARS TO A PERSON FOUND TO HAVE FRAUDULENTLY MISREPRESENTED RESIDENCE IN ORDER TO OBTAIN ASSISTANCE IN 2 OR MORE STATES.—An individual shall not be considered an eligible individual for the purposes of this part during the 10-year period that begins on the date the individual is convicted in Federal or State court of having made a fraudulent statement or representation with respect to the place of residence of the individual in order to receive assistance simultaneously from 2 or more States under programs that are funded under this title, title XXI, or the Food Stamp Act of 1977, or benefits in 2 or more States under the supplemental security income program under title XVI.

"(d) DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE FOR FUGITIVE FELONS AND PROBATION AND PAROLE VIOLATORS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—An individual shall not be considered an eligible individual for the purposes of this part if such individual is—

"(A) fleeing to avoid prosecution, or custody or confinement after conviction, under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, for a crime, or an attempt to commit a crime, which is a felony under the laws of the place from which the individual flees, or which, in the case of the State of New Jersey, is a high misdemeanor under the laws of such State; or

"(B) violating a condition of probation or parole imposed under Federal or State law.

"(2) EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a State shall furnish any Federal, State, or local law enforcement officer, upon the request of the officer, with the current address, Social Security number, and photograph (if applicable) of any recipient of assistance under this part, if the officer furnishes the agency with the name of the recipient and notifies the agency that—

"(A) such recipient—

"(i) is described in subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (1); or

"(ii) has information that is necessary for the officer to conduct the officer's official duties; and

"(B) the location or apprehension of the recipient is within such officer's official duties.

"(e) STATE OPTION TO REQUIRE ASSIGNMENT OF SUPPORT.—At the option of the State, a State to which a grant is made under section 403 may provide that an individual applying for or receiving assistance under the State program funded under this part shall be required to assign to the State any rights to support from any other person the individual may have in such individual's own behalf or in behalf of any other family member for whom the individual is applying for or receiving assistance.

"(f) DENIAL OF ASSISTANCE FOR ABSENT CHILD.—Each State to which a grant is made under section 403—

"(1) may not use any part of the grant to provide assistance to a family with respect to any minor child who has been, or is expected by the caretaker relative in the family to be, absent from the home for a period of 45 consecutive days or, at the option of the State, such period of not less than 30 and not more than 90 consecutive days as the State may provide for in the State plan;

"(2) at the option of the State, may establish such good cause exceptions to paragraph (1) as the State considers appropriate if such exceptions are provided for in the State plan; and

"(3) shall provide that a caretaker relative shall not be considered an eligible individual for purposes of this part if the caretaker relative fails to notify the State agency of an absence of a minor child from the home for the period specified in or provided for under paragraph (1), by the end of the 5-day period that begins on the date that it becomes clear to the caretaker relative that the minor child will be absent for the period so specified or provided for in paragraph (1).

"SEC. 406. PROMOTING RESPONSIBLE PARENTING.

"(a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following findings:

"(1) Marriage is the foundation of a successful society.

"(2) Marriage is an essential institution of a successful society which promotes the interests of children.

"(3) Promotion of responsible fatherhood and motherhood is integral to successful child rearing and the wellbeing of children.

"(4) In 1992, only 54 percent of single-parent families with children had a child support order established and, of that 54 percent, only about one half received the full amount due. Of the cases enforced through the public child support enforcement system, only 18 percent of the caseload has a collection.

"(5) The number of individuals receiving aid to families with dependent children (hereafter in this subsection referred to as 'AFDC') has more than tripled since 1965. More than two-thirds of these recipients are children. Eighty-nine percent of children receiving AFDC benefits now live in homes in which no father is present.

"(A)(i) The average monthly number of children receiving AFDC benefits—

"(I) was 3,300,000 in 1965;

"(II) was 6,200,000 in 1970;

"(III) was 7,400,000 in 1980; and

"(IV) was 9,300,000 in 1992.

"(ii) While the number of children receiving AFDC benefits increased nearly threefold between 1965 and 1992, the total number of children in the United States aged 0 to 18 has declined by 5.5 percent.

"(B) The Department of Health and Human Services has estimated that 12,000,000 children will receive AFDC benefits within 10 years.

"(C) The increase in the number of children receiving public assistance is closely related to the increase in births to unmarried women. Between 1970 and 1991, the percentage of live births to unmarried women increased nearly threefold, from 10.7 percent to 29.5 percent.

"(6) The increase of out-of-wedlock pregnancies and births is well documented as follows:

"(A) It is estimated that the rate of nonmarital teen pregnancy rose 23 percent from 54 pregnancies per 1,000 unmarried teenagers in 1976 to 66.7 pregnancies in 1991. The overall rate of nonmarital pregnancy rose 14 percent from 90.8 pregnancies per 1,000 unmarried women in 1980 to 103 in both 1991 and 1992. In contrast, the overall pregnancy rate for married couples decreased 7.3 percent between 1980 and 1991, from 126.9 pregnancies per 1,000 married women in 1980 to 117.6 pregnancies in 1991.

"(B) The total of all out-of-wedlock births between 1970 and 1991 has risen from 10.7 percent to 29.5 percent and if the current trend continues, 50 percent of all births by the year 2015 will be out-of-wedlock.

"(7) The negative consequences of an out-of-wedlock birth on the mother, the child, the family, and society are well documented as follows:

"(A) Young women 17 and under who give birth outside of marriage are more likely to go on public assistance and to spend more years on welfare once enrolled. These combined effects of 'younger and longer' increase total AFDC costs per household by 25 percent to 30 percent for 17-year olds.

"(B) Children born out-of-wedlock have a substantially higher risk of being born at a very low or moderately low birth weight.

"(C) Children born out-of-wedlock are more likely to experience low verbal cognitive attainment, as well as more child abuse, and neglect.

"(D) Children born out-of-wedlock were more likely to have lower cognitive scores, lower educational aspirations, and a greater likelihood of becoming teenage parents themselves.

"(E) Being born out-of-wedlock significantly reduces the chances of the child growing up to have an intact marriage.

"(F) Children born out-of-wedlock are 3 more times likely to be on welfare when they grow up.

"(8) Currently 35 percent of children in single-parent homes were born out-of-wedlock, nearly the same percentage as that of children in single-parent homes whose parents are divorced (37 percent). While many parents find themselves, through divorce or tragic circumstances beyond their control, facing the difficult task of raising children alone, nevertheless, the negative consequences of raising children in single-parent homes are well documented as follows:

"(A) Only 9 percent of married-couple families with children under 18 years of age have income below the national poverty level. In contrast, 46 percent of female-headed households with children under 18 years of age are below the national poverty level.

"(B) Among single-parent families, nearly ½ of the mothers who never married received AFDC while only ⅛ of divorced mothers received AFDC.

"(C) Children born into families receiving welfare assistance are 3 times more likely to be on welfare when they reach adulthood than children not born into families receiving welfare.

"(D) Mothers under 20 years of age are at the greatest risk of bearing low birth-weight babies.

"(E) The younger the single parent mother, the less likely she is to finish high school.

"(F) Young women who have children before finishing high school are more likely to receive welfare assistance for a longer period of time.

"(G) Between 1985 and 1990, the public cost of births to teenage mothers under the aid to families with dependent children program, the food stamp program, and the medicaid program has been estimated at $120,000,000,000.

"(H) The absence of a father in the life of a child has a negative effect on school performance and peer adjustment.

"(I) Children of teenage single parents have lower cognitive scores, lower educational aspirations, and a greater likelihood of becoming teenage parents themselves.

"(J) Children of single-parent homes are 3 times more likely to fail and repeat a year in grade school than are children from intact two-parent families.

"(K) Children from single-parent homes are almost 4 times more likely to be expelled or suspended from school.

"(L) Neighborhoods with larger percentages of youth aged 12 through 20 and areas with higher percentages of single-parent households have higher rates of violent crime.

"(M) Of those youth held for criminal offenses within the State juvenile justice system, only 29.8 percent lived primarily in a home with both parents. In contrast to these incarcerated youth, 73.9 percent of the 62,800,000 children in the Nation's resident population were living with both parents.

"(9) Therefore, in light of this demonstration of the crisis in our Nation, it is the sense of the Congress that prevention of out-of-wedlock pregnancy and reduction in out-of-wedlock birth are very important Government interests and the policy contained in provisions of this title is intended to address the crisis.

"(b) REQUIREMENT THAT TEENAGE PARENTS LIVE IN ADULT-SUPERVISED SETTINGS.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—

"(A) REQUIREMENT.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), if a State provides assistance under the State program funded under this part to an individual described in subparagraph (B), such individual may only receive assistance under the program if such individual and the child of the individual reside in a place of residence maintained by a parent, legal guardian, or other adult relative of such individual as such parent's, guardian's, or adult relative's own home.

"(B) INDIVIDUAL DESCRIBED.—For purposes of subparagraph (A), an individual is described in this subparagraph if the individual is described in paragraph (1)(B) and—

"(i) such individual has no parent, legal guardian or other appropriate adult relative as described in (ii) of his or her own who is living or whose whereabouts are known;

"(ii) no living parent, legal guardian, or other appropriate adult relative who would otherwise meet applicable State criteria to act as such individual's legal guardian, of such individual allows the individual to live in the home of such parent, guardian, or relative;

"(iii) the State agency determines that—

"(I) the individual or the individual's custodial minor child is being or has been subjected to serious physical or emotional harm, sexual abuse, or exploitation in the residence of such individual's own parent or legal guardian; or

"(II) substantial evidence exists of an act or failure to act that presents an imminent or serious harm if such individual and such individual's minor child lived in the same residence with such individual's own parent or legal guardian; or

"(iv) the State agency otherwise determines that it is in the best interest of the minor child to waive the requirement of paragraph (1) with respect to such individual or minor child.

"(C) SECOND-CHANCE HOME.—For purposes of this paragraph, the term 'second-chance home' means an entity that provides individuals described in subparagraph (B) with a supportive and supervised living arrangement in which such individuals are required to learn parenting skills, including child development, family budgeting, health and nutrition, and other skills to promote their long-term economic independence and the well-being of their children.

"(3) ASSISTANCE TO STATES IN PROVIDING OR LOCATING ADULT-SUPERVISED SUPPORTIVE LIVING ARRANGEMENTS FOR UNMARRIED TEENAGE PARENTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—For each of fiscal years 1996 through 2002, each State that provides assistance under the State program to individuals described in paragraph (1)(B) shall be entitled to receive a grant in an amount determined under subparagraph (B) for the purpose of providing or locating adult-supervised supportive living arrangements for individuals described in paragraph (1)(B) in accordance with this subsection.

"(B) AMOUNT DETERMINED.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—The amount determined under this subparagraph is an amount that bears the same ratio to the amount specified under clause (ii) as the amount of the State family assistance grant for the State for such fiscal year (described in section 403(a)(2)) bears to the amount appropriated for such fiscal year in accordance with section 403(a)(4)(A).

"(ii) AMOUNT SPECIFIED.—The amount specified in this subparagraph is—

"(I) for fiscal year 1996, $25,000,000;

"(II) for fiscal year 1997, $25,000,000; and

"(c) REQUIREMENT THAT TEENAGE PARENTS ATTEND HIGH SCHOOL OR OTHER EQUIVALENT TRAINING PROGRAM.—If a State provides assistance under the State program funded under this part to an individual described in subsection (b)(1)(B) who has not successfully completed a high-school education (or its equivalent) and whose minor child is at least 12 weeks of age, the State shall not provide such individual with assistance under the program (or, at the option of the State, shall provide a reduced level of such assistance) if the individual does not participate in—

"(1) educational activities directed toward the attainment of a high school diploma or its equivalent; or

"(2) an alternative educational or training program that has been approved by the State.

"(d) STATE OPTION TO DENY ASSISTANCE IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS.—Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to restrict the authority of a State to exercise its option to limit assistance under this part to individuals if such limitation is not inconsistent with the provisions of this part.

"SEC. 407. STATE PENALTIES.

"(a) IN GENERAL.—Subject to the provisions of subsection (b), the Secretary shall deduct from the grant otherwise payable under section 403 the following penalties:

"(1) FOR USE OF GRANT IN VIOLATION OF THIS PART.—If an audit conducted under section 408 finds that an amount paid to a State under section 403 for a fiscal year has been used in violation of this part, then the Secretary shall reduce the amount of the grant otherwise payable to the State under such section for the immediately succeeding fiscal year quarter by the amount so used. If the State does not prove to the satisfaction of the Secretary that such unlawful expenditure was not made by the State in intentional violation of the requirements of this part, then the Secretary shall impose an additional penalty of 5 percent of such grant (determined without regard to this section).

"(2) FOR FAILURE TO SUBMIT REQUIRED REPORT.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—If the Secretary determines that a State has not, within 6 months after the end of a fiscal year, submitted the report required by section 409 for the fiscal year, the Secretary shall reduce by 5 percent the amount of the grant that would (in the absence of this section) be payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

"(i) in the first year in which the State fails to satisfy such rates, 5 percent; and

"(ii) in subsequent years in which the State fails to satisfy such rates, the percent reduction determined under this subparagraph (if any) in the preceding year, increased by 5 percent.

"(B) PENALTY BASED ON SEVERITY OF FAILURE.—The Secretary shall impose reductions under subparagraph (A) on the basis of the degree of noncompliance.

"(4) FOR FAILURE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE INCOME AND ELIGIBILITY VERIFICATION SYSTEM.—If the Secretary determines that a State program funded under this part is not participating during a fiscal year in the income and eligibility verification system required by section 1137, the Secretary shall reduce by not more than 5 percent the amount of the grant that would (in the absence of this section) be payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

"(5) FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH PATERNITY ESTABLISHMENT AND CHILD SUPPORT ENFORCEMENT REQUIREMENTS UNDER PART D.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, if the Secretary determines that the State agency that administers a program funded under this part does not enforce the penalties requested by the agency administering part D against recipients of assistance under the State program who fail to cooperate in establishing paternity in accordance with such part, the Secretary shall reduce by not more than 5 percent the amount of the grant that would (in the absence of this section) be payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

"(6) FOR FAILURE TO TIMELY REPAY A FEDERAL LOAN FUND FOR STATE WELFARE PROGRAMS.—If the Secretary determines that a State has failed to repay any amount borrowed from the Federal Loan Fund for State Welfare Programs established under section 403(d) within the period of maturity applicable to such loan, plus any interest owed on such loan, then the Secretary shall reduce the amount of the grant otherwise payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year quarter by the outstanding loan amount, plus the interest owed on such outstanding amount. The Secretary may not forgive any outstanding loan amount nor interest owed thereon.

"(b) REQUIREMENTS.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—In imposing the penalties described in subsection (a), the Secretary shall not reduce any quarterly payment to a State by more than 25 percent.

"(B) CARRYFORWARD OF UNRECOVERED PENALTIES.—To the extent that subparagraph (A) prevents the Secretary from recovering during a fiscal year the full amount of all penalties imposed on a State under subsection (a) for a prior fiscal year, the Secretary shall apply any remaining amount of such penalties to the grant otherwise payable to the State under section 403 for the immediately succeeding fiscal year.

"(2) STATE FUNDS TO REPLACE REDUCTIONS IN GRANT.—A State which has a penalty imposed against it under subsection (a) shall expend additional State funds in an amount equal to the amount of the penalty for the purpose of providing assistance under the State program under this part.

"(3) REASONABLE CAUSE FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.—The Secretary may not impose a penalty on a State under subsection (a) if the Secretary determines that the State has reasonable cause for failing to comply with a requirement for which a penalty is imposed under such subsection.

"(c) CERTIFICATION OF AMOUNT OF PENALTIES.—If the Secretary is required to reduce the amount of any grant under this section, the Secretary shall certify the amount of such reduction to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of the Treasury shall reduce the amount paid to the State under section 403 by such amount.

"(d) EFFECTIVE DATES.—

"(1) IN GENERAL.—The penalties described in paragraphs (2) through (6) of subsection (a) shall apply—

"SEC. 408. AUDITS.

"(a) IN GENERAL.—Each State shall, not less than annually, audit the State expenditures from amounts received under this part. Such audit shall—

"(1) determine the extent to which such expenditures were or were not expended in accordance with this part; and

"(2) be conducted by an approved entity (as defined in subsection (b)) in accordance with generally accepted auditing principles.

"(b) APPROVED ENTITY.—For purposes of subsection (a), the term 'approved entity' means an entity that—

"(1) is approved by the Secretary of the Treasury;

"(2) is approved by the chief executive officer of the State; and

"(3) is independent of any agency administering activities funded under this part.

"(c) AUDIT REPORT.—Not later than 30 days following the completion of an audit under this subsection, a State shall submit a copy of the audit to the State legislature, the Secretary of the Treasury, and the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

SEC. 7207. DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS FOR SCHOOL UTILIZATION.

(a) FINDINGS.—It is the goal of the United States that children grow to be self-sufficient citizens, that parents equip themselves to provide the best parental care and guidance to their children, and that welfare dependency, crime, and the deterioration of neighborhoods be eliminated. It will contribute to these goals to increase the level of parents' involvement in their children's school and other activities, to increase the amount of time parents spend with or in close proximity to their children, to increase the portion of the day and night when children are in a safe and healthy environment and not exposed to unfavorable influences, to increase the opportunities for children to participate in safe, healthy, and enjoyable extracurricular and organized developmental and recreational activities, and to make more accessible the opportunities for parents, especially those dependent on public assistance, to increase and enhance their parenting and living skills. All of these contributions can be facilitated by establishing the neighborhood public school as a focal point for such activities and by extending the hours of the day in which its facilities are available for such activities.

(b) GRANTS.—The Secretary of Education (hereafter in this section referred to as the "Secretary") shall make demonstration grants as provided in subsection (c) to States to enable them to increase the number of hours during each day when existing public school facilities are available for use for the purposes set forth in subsection (d).

(2) making the school facilities available for community and neighborhood clubs, civic associations and organizations, Boy and Girl Scouts and similar organizations, adult education classes, organized sports, parental education classes, and other educational, recreational, and social activities.

None of the funds provided under this section can be used to supplant funds already provided to a school facility for services, equipment, personnel, or utilities nor can funds be used to pay costs associated with operating school facilities during hours those facilities are already available for student or community use.

SEC. 13002. LEASE-PURCHASE OF OVERSEAS PROPERTY.

(a) AUTHORITY FOR LEASE-PURCHASE.—Subject to subsections (b) and (c), the Secretary is authorized to acquire by lease-purchase such properties as are described in subsection (b), if—

(1) the Secretary of State, and

(2) the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, certify and notify the appropriate committees of Congress that the lease-purchase arrangement will result in a net cost savings to the Federal government when compared to a lease, a direct purchase, or direct construction of comparable property.

(b) LOCATIONS AND LIMITATIONS.—The authority granted in subsection (a) may be exercised only—

(1) to acquire appropriate housing for Department of State personnel stationed abroad and for the acquisition of other facilities, in locations in which the United States has a diplomatic mission; and

(2) during fiscal years 1996 through 1999.

(c) AUTHORIZATION OF FUNDING.—Funds for lease-purchase arrangements made pursuant to subsection (a) shall be available from amounts appropriated under the authority of section 111(a)(3) (relating to the Acquisition and Maintenance of Buildings Abroad'' account).

SEC. 13003. PAY OF MEMBERS OF CONGRESS AND THE PRESIDENT DURING GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWNS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Members of Congress and the President shall not receive basic pay for any period in which—

(1) there is more than a 24-hour lapse in appropriations for any Federal agency or department as a result of a failure to enact a regular appropriations bill or continuing resolution; or

(2) the Federal Government is unable to make payments or meet obligations because the public debt limit under section 3101 of title 31, United States Code has been reached.

(b) RETROACTIVE PAY PROHIBITED.—No pay forfeited in accordance with subsection (a) may be paid retroactively.

SEC. 13004. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON CONTINUED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN THE FORMER YUGOSLAVIA.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate makes the following findings:

(1) Human rights violations and atrocities continue unabated in the former Yugoslavia.

(2) The Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights recently reported that starting in mid-September and intensifying between October 6 and October 12, 1995 many thousands of Bosnian Muslims and Croats in Northwest Bosnia were systematically forced from their homes by paramilitary units, local police and in some instances, Bosnian Serb Army officials and soldiers.

(3) Despite the October 12, 1995 cease-fire which went into effect by agreement of the warring parties in the former Yugoslavia, Bosnian Serbs continue to conduct a brutal campaign to expel non-Serb civilians who remain in Northwest Bosnia, and are subjecting non-Serbs to untold horror—murder, rape, robbery and other violence.

(4) Horrible examples of ''ethnic cleansing'' persist in Northwest Bosnia. Some 6,000 refugees recently reached Zenica and reported that nearly 2,000 family members from this group are still unaccounted for.

(5) The United Nations spokesman in Zagreb reported that many refugees have been given only a few minutes to leave their homes and that "girls as young as 17 are reported to have been taken into wooded areas and raped". Elderly, sick and very young refugees have been driven to remote areas and forced to walk long distances on unsafe roads and cross rivers without bridges.

(6) The War Crimes Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia has collected volumes of evidence of atrocities, including the establishment of death camps, mass executions and systematic campaigns of rape and terror. This War Crimes Tribunal has already issued 43 indictments on the basis of this evidence.

(7) The Assistant Secretary of State for Human Rights has described the eyewitness accounts as "prima facia evidence of war crimes which, if confirmed, could very well lead to further indictments by the War Crimes Tribunal".

(8) The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees estimates that more than 22,000 Muslims and Croats have been forced from their homes since mid-September in Bosnian Serb controlled areas.

(9) In opening the Dodd Center Symposium on the topic of "50 Years After Nuremburg" on October 16, 1995, President Clinton cited the "excellent progress" of the War Crimes Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia and said, "Those accused of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide must be brought to justice. They must be tried and, if found guilty, they must be held accountable.".

(10) President Clinton also observed on October 16, 1995, "some people are concerned that pursuing peace in Bosnia and prosecuting war criminals are incompatible goals. But I believe they are wrong. There must be peace for justice to prevail, but there must be justice when peace prevails".

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Senate condemns the systematic human rights abuses against the people of Bosnia and Herzegovena.

(2) with peace talks scheduled to begin in the United States on October 31, 1995, these new reports of Serbian atrocities are of grave concern to all Americans.

(3) the Bosnian Serb leadership should immediately halt these atrocities, fully account for the missing, and allow those who have been separated to return to their families.

(4) the International Red Cross, United Nations agencies and human rights organizations should be granted full and complete access to all locations throughout Bosnia and Herzegovena.

(5) the Bosnian Serb leadership should fully cooperate to facilitate the complete investigation of the above allegations so that those responsible may be held accountable under international treaties, conventions, obligations and law.

(6) the United States should continue to support the work of the War Crimes Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia.

(7) "ethnic cleansing" by any faction, group, leader, or government is unjustified, immoral and illegal and all perpetrators of war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide and other human rights violations in the former Yugoslavia must be held accountable.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Vice President of the United States and President of the Senate.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary

For Immediate Release December 6, 1995

TO THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

I am returning herewith without my approval H.R. 2491, the budget reconciliation bill adopted by the Republican majority, which seeks to make extreme cuts and other unacceptable changes in Medicare and Medicaid, and to raise taxes on millions of working Americans.

As I have repeatedly stressed, I want to find common ground with the Congress on a balanced budget plan that will best serve the American people. But, I have profound differences with the extreme approach that the Republican majority has adopted. It would hurt average Americans and help special interests.

My balanced budget plan reflects the values that Americans share -- work and family, opportunity and responsibility. It would protect Medicare and retain Medicaid's guarantee of coverage; invest in education and training and other priorities; protect public health and the environment; and provide for a targeted tax cut to help middle-income Americans raise their children, save for the future, and pay for postsecondary education. To reach balance, my plan would eliminate wasteful spending, streamline programs, and end unneeded subsidies; take the first, serious steps toward health care reform; and reform welfare to reward work.

By contrast, H.R. 2491 would cut deeply into Medicare, Medicaid, student loans, and nutrition programs; hurt the environment; raise taxes on millions of working men and women and their families by slashing the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC); and provide a huge tax cut whose benefits would flow disproportionately to those who are already the most well-off.

Moreover, this bill creates new fiscal pressures. Revenue losses from the tax cuts grow rapidly after 2002, with costs exploding for provisions that primarily benefit upper-income taxpayers. Taken together, the revenue losses for the 3 years after 2002 for the individual retirement account (IRA), capital gains, and estate tax provisions exceed the losses for the preceding 6 years.

Title VIII would cut Medicare by $270 billion over 7 years -- by far the largest cut in Medicare's 30-year history. While we need to slow the rate of growth in Medicare spending, I believe Medicare must keep pace with anticipated increases in the costs of medical services and the growing number of elderly Americans. This bill would fall woefully short and would hurt beneficiaries, over half of whom are women. In addition, the bill introduces untested, and highly questionable, Medicare "choices" that could increase risks and costs for the most vulnerable beneficiaries.

Title VII would cut Federal Medicaid payments to States by $163 billion over 7 years and convert the program into a block grant, eliminating guaranteed coverage to millions of Americans and putting States at risk during economic downturns. States would face untenable choices: cutting benefits, dropping coverage for millions of beneficiaries, or reducing provider payments to a level that would undermine quality service to children, people with disabilities, the elderly, pregnant women, and others who depend on Medicaid. I am also concerned that the bill has inadequate quality and income protections for nursing home residents, the developmentally disabled, and their families; and that it would eliminate a program that guarantees immunizations to many children.

Title IV would virtually eliminate the Direct Student Loan Program, reversing its significant progress and ending the participation of over 1,300 schools and hundreds of thousands of students. These actions would hurt middle- and low-income families, make student loan programs less efficient, perpetuate unnecessary red tape, and deny students and schools the free-market choice of guaranteed or direct loans.

Title V would open the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge (ANWR) to oil and gas drilling, threatening a unique, pristine ecosystem, in hopes of generating $1.3 billion in Federal revenues -- a revenue estimate based on wishful thinking and outdated analysis. I want to protect this biologically rich wilderness permanently. I am also concerned that the Congress has chosen to use the reconciliation bill as a catch-all for various objectionable natural resource and environmental policies. One would retain the notorious patenting provision whereby the government transfers billions of dollars of publicly owned minerals at little or no charge to private interests; another would transfer Federal land for a low-level radioactive waste site in California without public safeguards.

While making such devastating cuts in Medicare, Medicaid, and other vital programs, this bill would provide huge tax cuts for those who are already the most well-off. Over 47 percent of the tax benefits would go to families with incomes over $100,000 -- the top 12 percent. The bill would provide unwarranted benefits to corporations and new tax breaks for special interests. At the same time, it would raise taxes, on average, for the poorest one-fifth of all families.

The bill would make capital gains cuts retroactive to January 1, 1995, providing a windfall of $13 billion in about the first 9 months of 1995 alone to taxpayers who already have sold their assets. While my Administration supports limited reform of the alternative minimum tax (AMT), this bill's cuts in the corporate AMT would not adequately ensure that profitable corporations pay at least some Federal tax. The bill also would encourage businesses to avoid taxes by stockpiling foreign earnings in tax havens. And the bill does not include my proposal to close a loophole that allows wealthy Americans to avoid taxes on the gains they accrue by giving up their U.S. citizenship. Instead, it substitutes a provision that would prove ineffective.

While cutting taxes for the well-off, this bill would cut the EITC for almost 13 million working families. It would repeal part of the scheduled 1996 increase for taxpayers with two or more children, and end the credit for workers who do not live with qualifying children. Even after accounting for other tax cuts in this bill, about eight million families would face a net tax increase.

The bill would threaten the retirement benefits of workers and increase the exposure of the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation by making it easy for companies to withdraw tax-favored pension assets for nonpension purposes. It also would raise Federal employee retirement contributions, unduly burdening Federal workers. Moreover, the bill would eliminate the low-income housing tax credit and the community development corporation tax credit, which address critical housing needs and help rebuild communities. Finally, the bill would repeal the tax credit that encourages economic activity in Puerto Rico. We must not ignore the real needs of our citizens in Puerto Rico, and any legislation must contain effective mechanisms to promote job creation in the islands.

Title XII includes many welfare provisions. I strongly support real welfare reform that strengthens families and encourages work and responsibility. But the provisions in this bill, when added to the EITC cuts, would cut low-income programs too deeply. For welfare reform to succeed, savings should result from moving people from welfare to work, not from cutting people off and shifting costs to the States. The cost of excessive program cuts in human terms -- to working families, single mothers with small children, abused and neglected children, low-income legal immigrants, and disabled children -- would be grave. In addition, this bill threatens the national nutritional safety net by making unwarranted changes in child nutrition programs and the national food stamp program.

The agriculture provisions would eliminate the safety net that farm programs provide for U.S. agriculture. Title I would provide windfall payments to producers when prices are high, but not protect family farm income when prices are low. In addition, it would slash spending for agricultural export assistance and reduce the environmental benefits of the Conservation Reserve Program.

For all of these reasons, and for others detailed in the attachment, this bill is unacceptable.

Nevertheless, while I have major differences with the Congress, I want to work with Members to find a common path to balance the budget in a way that will honor our commitment to senior citizens, help working families, provide a better life for our children, and improve the standard of living of all Americans.
